VOLUME XIX — NUMBER 38

JUNE 7, 1958

Frankie Vaughan, one of England's top recording stars, has Bill Nielsen and Joe Sherman, General Manager and A&R Head respectively of Epic Records, celebrating a hit in his recording of "Judy". Not only is Frankie's record making noise, but his film "Dangerous Youth" will be released this month by Warner Brothers and his appearances on the Ed Sullivan, Patti Page and Dick Clark shows have won him a host of offers for personal appearances on TV and in night clubs.

Record Reviews

A DISK & SLEEPER

B VERY GOOD

B+ EXCELLENT

C+ GOOD

D MEDIOCRE

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

ARLENE FONTANA
(Paris 518)

B+ "I CAN'T BELIEVE THAT YOU'RE IN LOVE WITH ME" (1:58) [Mills ASCAP—McHugh, Gaskill] One of the more exciting revivals of oldies is this wonderful arrangement featuring newcomer Arlene Fontana. Lark hands in a spirited performance. She has an amazing vocal similarity to Eydie Gorme. Watch this side closely. Choral showcase is terrific.

B "EVERYONE" (2:15) [Greta BMI—Earnhart] A cute shuffle rhythm romancer is pertly styled on this end. Lively swinger with potential too.

EDDIE FONTAINE
(Chancellor 1018)

B+ "GOODNESS, IT'S GLADYS!" (2:09) [Pocono-Rambled BMI—Hunter, Fisher] Eddie Fontaine bows on Chancellor with a knockdown-drag out reading of a torrid R & R item that has smash possibilities. Sizzling vocal effort that starts your toes a-tappin'. Hot stuff to watch closely. One of the songster's strongest sides to date.

B "MIDDLE OF THE ROAD" (2:07) [Pocono-Weiss & Barry BMI—Sauter, Fontaine] The versatile rock and roller drives thru a good rock-a-billy flavored hand-clapper on this end. Exciting jumper with a terrific sound. Fine coupling for the teenage disk-buying set.

JOHNSTON BROS.
(London 1807)

B+ "LITTLE SERENADE" (2:30) [Peter Maurice ASCAP—Ferrio, Amurri, Parsons, Turner] A charming Italian flavored novelty is wonderfully styled by one of Britain's top vocal groups. Smooth latin beat cutie that should do well. This version should bite off a good share of the song's sales.

C+ "SCRATCH SCRATCH" (2:20) [Clara ASCAP—Belafonte, Burgess] A cute calypso novelty is handled with color by the gents. Refreshing arrangement and delivery of a ditty with humorous lyrics.

SANDEE MOORE
(Brunswick 55065)

B+ "THE AUTOGRAPH" [Revere ASCAP—Leviton] The sweet, youthful voice of Sandee Moore is attractively displayed in a fine teenage rock-a-ballad that could blossom into a sleeper hit for Brunswick. Good story and performance.

C+ "GOODY GUMDROP" [Northern ASCAP—Leviton] The talented young chirp picks up the pace and bounces thru a spirited rocker. Hard hitting dance stuff.

RUTH OLAY
(Mercury 71316)

B "SINGIN' IN THE RAIN" (2:30) [Robbins ASCAP—Brown, Freed] Ruth Olay hands in an inventive interpretation of a top drawer standard. Good up-beat rhythm treatment with some interesting vocalesthenics by Miss Olay. Interesting programming material.

C+ "I WANNA BE LOVED" (3:15) [Famous ASCAP—Green, Rose, Heyman] Ruth sings the verse then glides into a sultry, hip-swinging reading of this romantic favorite.

The Cash Box Disk of the Week

"STAY" (2:37)
[Planetary ASCAP—Tepper,
Bennett]

"LITTLE SERENADE" (2:44)
[Peter Maurice ASCAP—Ferrio,
Amurri—Eng.: Parsons, Turner]

AMES BROTHERS (RCA Victor 7268)

AMES BROTHERS

● The Ames Brothers' strongest coupling in years was issued last week by Victor. In their smooth, polished manner, the boys glide thru a beautiful rock-a-ballad offering on one side, dubbed "Stay". Pretty side that could be the next teenage favorite. Equally strong is "Little Serenade", a most contagious Italian flavored ditty with a chacha tempo. Delightful side. Both should make it.

"A CERTAIN SMILE" (2:45) [Miller ASCAP—Webster, Fain]
"LET IT RAIN" (2:35) [Johnny Mathis ASCAP—Wayne, Frisch]
JOHNNY MATHIS (Columbia 41095)

JOHNNY MATHIS

● Johnny Mathis is headed for the winners' circle once again with his superb interpretation of the title song of 20th Century Fox' big new pic "A Certain Smile". Excellently written love song tailor-made for the Mathis torch. The songster's vast fandom will fall in love with this smart romancer. Voices showcase the pro wonderfully. Coupler, "Let It Rain" is another class mood ballad.

"A CERTAIN SMILE" (2:31) [Miller ASCAP—Webster, Fain]
"JUST FRIENDS" (2:40) [Robbins ASCAP—Lewis, Klenner]
SUNNY GALE (Decca 30670)

SUNNY GALE

● Sunny Gale has the hit look on her latest Decca offering. It's far and away the lark's strongest coupling in years and both sides are loaded with hit ingredients. "Just Friends" is a top drawer standard which Sunny fashions in rock-a-ballad style. Very commercial deck. "A Certain Smile" is a beautifully written film title tune with a class lyric and melody. Superbly executed by the talented lark. Take your pick.

"FOOL'S PARADISE" [Nor Va Jak BMI—LeGlaire, Petty, Linsley]
"THINK IT OVER" [Cedarwood BMI—Holly, Petty, Allison]

THE CRICKETS (Brunswick 55072)

CRICKETS

● The Crickets are back again with a powerful new release that could be their biggest since "That'll Be The Day". Both sides are hot and both are right in line with what the kids want. "Fool's Paradise" has the group blending smoothly thru a staccato beat rocker that sticks in the memory. "Think It Over" has a good country feel and an exciting lead vocal by Buddy Holly. Both are contenders for the charts.

BEN SHARON
(Giant 602)

B+ "COTTON PICKIN' CHICKEN PLUCKIN' SHAME" [LeBill Norad BMI—Campbell, Wallis, Houph] The Giant label gets off to a strong start with a cute new rock and roll novelty about the sack look. Ben Sharon handles the vocal chores in commercial fashion. Could catch on. It's got a sound.

B+ "IT SEEMS THIS HAPPENED BEFORE" [LeBill BMI—Campbell, Wallis] A chorus supports Sharon as he warmly interprets a fragile, well written love ballad with an extremely professional lyric. Touching love story that should appeal to all age groups. Fine coupling that deserves attention.

TAB HUNTER
(Dot 15767)

B+ "IT'S ALL OVER TOWN" (2:19) [Eddie Shaw ASCAP—Livingston, Baum] Film idol Tab Hunter is back on the disk scene again with a pretty rock-a-ballad shuffler which he chants in commercial fashion. Good teenage merchandise.

B "I'M A RUNAWAY" (2:25) [Columbia Pic. ASCAP—Karger, Quine] From the Columbia film, "Gunman's Walk", comes this lilting cowboy type tune. Inviting delivery by Hunter.

THE HOMESTEADERS
(End 1017)

B+ "LONELY DAY" (2:23) [Sylvia BMI—Litke] The End label has a winning new group in the Homesteaders who debut with a beautiful rock-a-ballad. Lead voice is terrific and background support showcases the lead's smooth tones to best advantage. Watch this side. A definite contender.

C+ "RIFF ROCK" (2:29) [Sylvia BMI—Lariccia, Andrews] A good stroll beat instrumental.

PLAS JOHNSON
(Capitol 3977)

B "DINAH" (2:29) [Mills ASCAP—Akst, Lewis, Young] A chorus supplies saxist Plas Johnson with a fine showcase for the instrumentalist's slow moving treatment of th's favorite. Chorus performs sans lyrics. Jockeys will probably enjoy spinning th's one. Bluesy feeling.

B "LITTLE ROCKIN' DEACON" (2:11) [Milbee ASCAP—Cubbin, Domes, Idriss] Johnson works with a combo and a chorus to shuffle thru a spright jumper. Good lindy hop tempo. Kids'll enjoy the rhythm of this instrumental.

JOE BENNETT & SPARKLETONES
(ABC-Paramount 9929)

B+ "WE'VE HAD IT" (1:45) [Pamco BMI—Bennett] Bennett and the Sparkletones, who clicked with "Black Slacks", could have another strong seller in this fast-moving rocker. Side has a cute lyric and a terrific dance beat. Commercial deck to watch closely.

B "LITTLE TURTLE" (1:55) [Pamco BMI—Bennett] Another exciting finger-snappin' rocker handled with spirit and zest by the group. Trigger fast reading is exciting. Kids should enjoy both ends.

AUSTIN CROMER
(Roulette 4077)

B+ "I THINK OF YOU" (2:06) [Chandler ASCAP—Mancini, Herbert] Lyrics have been set to the classical favorite "Frueuse" which Austin Cromer chants so beautifully. Lad has a rich, magnificent voice that kids and adults will both love. Potent deck that could step out if it gets a fair initial spin.

B "ON ONE FINGER OF YOUR HAND" (2:40) [Planetary ASCAP—Tobias, Altman] Another dramatic performance of a big ballad. Cromer's diction is perfect and stirring too.

THE BANJOLEERS
(Capitol 3976)

B+ "SORRY, SORRY, SORRY" (1:51) [Edward Kassner ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning] The Banjoleers take us back to the joyous 20's with a happy-go-lucky community sing novelty. The voices of the group blend delightfully with banjos, chimes, etc. Great change-of-pace programming material for dee jays.

B "WHOOOPS - A - DAISY" (2:10) [Edward Kassner ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning] This end takes the listener still further back. This sounds like the happy summery merchandise that was popular in the gay 90's. Inviting waltzer that also falls pleasantly on the ears. Two sides that'll probably attract heavy air play.

DIANE MAXWELL
(Challenge 59011)

B+ "DREAMY" (2:31) [Sherman BMI—Stanley] Challenge could have a big new money-maker in this pretty fish-beat ballad neatly executed by talented newcomer Diane Maxwell. Song has a soft, soothing sound and Diane's multiple voicing is excellent. Strong side to watch.

C+ "COTTON CANDY LOVE" (2:30) [Golden West BMI—Burgess] A good rhythm rocker with a contagious teenage lyric, is belted with gusto by the canary.

THE TEMPLES
(Date 1004)

B "I DON'T WANT TO DO A THING BUT LOVE YOU" (1:55) [Hecht, Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP—Shaw, White] An exciting rocker gets a potent going over from the Temples. Side has a great beat and a gravel throated lead voice that sells the song. Could make big noise.

C+ "WHISPERING CAMPAIGN" (2:15) [Hecht, Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP—Shaw, White] A pretty rock-a-ballad is handled with warmth and style by the group. Interesting harmony.

STEVE ALLEN
(Coral 61995)

B "WHEN YOU'RE SMILING (THE WHOLE WORLD SMILES AT YOU)" [Mills ASCAP—Shay, Fisher, Goodwin] The oldie gets a swinging revival thanks to the fleet Allen touch and the inventive ork support of Neal Hefti. A jazz offering that takes the advice of the tune.

B "YOU'RE SO INFLUENTIAL" (2:17) [Rosemeadow ASCAP—Allen] The famed TV performer and once again the Neal Hefti crew take on an Allen original for a danceable interlude. Side is from the Allen package, "Steve Allen Plays Hi-Fi Music For Influentials."

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"SINGING HILLS" (2:09) [Joy ASCAP—David, Sanford, Mysels]

"CHIMES OF ARCADY" (1:50) [Tobey ASCAP—Tobias, Wenrich]

BILLY VAUGHN (Dot 15771)

BILLY VAUGHN

● Billy Vaughn stays with his successful formula of reviving the oldies as he follows-up "Sail Along Silvery Moon" and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" with a wonderful rock and roll instrumental treatment of "Singing Hills". Another extremely commercial effort we'll be hearing often during the warm weather months. Flip is another smooth shuffle reading of a pretty theme.

"EH, MARIE! EH, MARIE!" (2:24)
[Romance BMI—Merrill]

"THE SHIEK OF ARABY" (2:10)
[Mills ASCAP—Wheeler, Smith, Snyder]

LOU MONTE (RCA Victor 7265)

LOU MONTE

● "Mr. Italy", Lou Monte, is in top form as he offers two great new interpretations of oldies which should follow in the footsteps of his "Lazy Mary" smash. "Eh, Marie! Eh, Marie!" is the Italian standard which Lou has revised in jump tempo. Good choral support. "Shiek Of Araby" under Lou's control becomes the "Shiek of Napoli". Two delights sung in Italian and English. Take your pick.

"DEVOTION" (2:35) [Sounds-Modern ASCAP—Cesana]
"HANDS ACROSS THE SEA" (2:01) [Zodiac BMI—Jay, Reid, Kosloff]

JANICE HARPER (Capitol 3984)

JANICE HARPER

● Janice Harper, who rose to prominence under the Prep banner with her big-voiced hit "Bon Voyage", hands in a thrilling debut performance on the Capitol label with a magnificent reading of a class ballad "Devotion". Potent deck that could go all the way. Also strong is Miss Harper's dramatic interpretation of an exciting rock-a-ballad, "Hands Across The Sea".

"BUBBLE GUM" (2:02)
[Chatham ASCAP—Rugg, Lee, Barr]

"KATHY-O" (2:22)
[Northern ASCAP—Tobias, Joseph, Sher]

PATTY MCCORMACK (Dot 15762)

PATTY MCCORMACK

● Film and stage star Patty McCormack, best remembered for her role in "The Bad Seed", is a sweet little teenager on her first Dot pressing as she offers a spright and contagious kiddie novelty, "Bubble Gum". Cute rock and roll ditty that could break wide open. Flip is the warm, tender title tune of the U-I pic "Kathy-O", in which Patty stars. Pretty side that grows on you. Watch this debut disk.

DICK ROMAN
(MGM 12664)

B+ "FIRST AND LAST ROMANCE" (2:03) [Famous ASCAP—Hampton] Now an MGM pactee, Roman effectively surveys a flavorful teen entry, which should be viewed as a performance with good sales possibilities. Roman's vocal touches effectively on the teen theme and rhythmic melody. Ork-chorus work of Leroy Holmes is another bright feature here. May make it.

B+ "TOO LATE TO BE SORRY (TOO EARLY TO CRY)" (2:40) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—David, Carr] Roman handles a wistful opus in expressive, straight-ballad fashion. The artist is again caught in an advantageous vocal light. Two sides to keep in touch with.

EDDIE HEYWOOD
(RCA Victor 7262)

B "HAITI LADY" (2:33) [Ludlow BMI—Heywood] Eddie Heywood's class keyboard artistry, which has won him a vast dee jay fandom, is on display once again as the 88'er glides easily thru a smooth self-penned mood item with a beat. Joe Reisman's ork supplies the attractive accompaniment. Jocks'll go for this one.

B "IT'S REALLY NOTHING" (2:27) [Meridian BMI—Greene] Heywood changes the pace with a pleasant shuffle beat harpsichord instrumental that falls comfortably on the ear.

JERRY VALE
(Columbia 41182)

B+ "BLUE TEARS (On A White White Wedding Gown)" (2:31) [United ASCAP—Mann, Curtis, Welton] A slow waltz tempo sets the sad mood for Jerry Vale's tearful reading of a ballad. Touching story about a lad dancing with his former girl at her wedding. Side grows on you.

B "WITH YOU" (2:40) [Rosemeadow ASCAP—Allen] A mandolin showcases the crooner as he wends his way thru another touching romantic ballad. Tender love lyric also set to a slow waltz rhythm.

KEELY SMITH
(Capitol 3975)

B+ "THE WHIPPOORWILL" (2:58) [Leeds ASCAP—Raye, Mitchum] A fascinating folk-flavored love ballad, co-authored by Robert Mitchum for the UA pic "Thunder Road", is beautifully executed by dee jay favorite Keely Smith. Wonderful song that should get heavy air play. Lovely side that could blossom into a winner with sufficient spins.

C+ "SOMETIMES" (2:25) [Enterprise ASCAP—Prima, Smith] Keely and her hubby Louis Prima penned this smart ballad aimed at the adult market. Class merchandise.

MALCOLM DODDS &
THE TUNE DROPS
(Decca 30653)

B "YOUR VOICE" (2:15) [Bobby & Lark BMI—Hall] Malcolm Dodds leads his Tune Drops thru a pretty rock-a-ballad that should appeal to the younger set. Whispering gimmick adds color to the tender love tune. Side builds as it progresses.

C+ "THE SWINGIN' PLATOON" (2:14) [Eden & Eby BMI—Brand, Williams] A rock and roll march novelty telling about a hep army platoon, is amusingly fashioned on this end.

JACK MARSHALL

(Capitol 3978)

B+ "FINGER POPPIN'" (1:55) [Roosevelt BMI—Blackwell] An infectious finger poppin' trick by the Marshall ork and chorus is certain to attract attention among deejays. Opening arrangement is particularly effective in setting the happy mood of the pressing. One of those novel vocal-instrumentals that could catch on. Bears watching.

B "THUNDER ROAD CHASE" (2:07) [Leeds ASCAP—Marshall] Chase is the word for this wild item from a United Artist's flick. "Thunder Road." More novel ork-choral fare from the Marshall ensemble.

KING GEORGE

(End 1023)

B "WOKE UP THIS MORNING" [Modern Music — Taub, King] This blueser is rendered in blazing fashion by the performer, who receives rousing support from Jim Laurro and the ork. A real rocker for lively programming.

B "JIVE TRAIN" [Times Music—Laurro] A jumper, patterned after a train in motion, is the offering from the Laurro membership sans King George.

ROBERT MITCHUM

(Capitol 3986)

B "MY HONEY'S LOVIN' ARMS" (1:56) [Mills ASCAP — Meyer, Ruby] The famed actor gives a good teen vocal account on a cute jumper that has a grow-on-you quality. Mitchum's polished rhythmic approach will surprise many. Ork-chorus back-drop is first-rate. An interesting turn-table item for the jocks.

C+ "THUNDER ROAD" (2:28) [Leeds ASCAP—Raye, Mitchum] Mitchum keeps up nicely with a fast-moving tale about moonshiners. Entry comes from a Mitchum film of the same name.

DE DENISE

(Enrico 101)

B "JAPANESE CHA CHA" [BMI—Denise] Side effectively interpolates an oriental theme with the cha cha beat. Organist Tommy Lane adds to the originality of the Denise ork affair. Novel Latin-dance issue.

C+ "HOP AND SKIP CHA CHA" [BMI—Denise] A return to more familiar cha cha ground, but with Lane still at the organ. Polished beat from the ork.

GENE MALTAIS

(Regal 7502)

B "LOVEMAKIN'" (2:21) [Desert Palms — Trinity BMI — Bennett] Gene Maltais leans into a solid rock and roller and belts the number across with zest. Potent dance offering the teenagers could pick up.

C+ "THE BUG" (2:12) [Desert Palms — Trinity BMI — Oilier, Oilier] More sizzling rock and roll merchandise dished across at a hard-hitting pace.

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"I THINK OF YOU" (2:30) [Knox BMI—Grayzell]

"JUDY" (2:03) [Knox BMI—Grayzell]

RUDY GRAYZELL (Sun 290)

RUDY GRAYZELL

● The Sun label, which has made pop stars out of many country recording personalities, should add another to its harvest. His name is Rudy Grayzell. The lad hands in a magnificent reading of a wonderful love ballad dubbed "I Think Of You". Potent teenage deck that could head into the winner's circle. Flip, "Judy", is a torrid "name tune" rocker that swings. But top is the one to watch.

"CRAZY EYES FOR YOU" (2:24) [Sidney BMI—Hamilton, Schlaks]

"WHILE WALKING TOGETHER" (1:46)

[Sidney BMI—Hamilton, Schlaks]

BOBBY HAMILTON (APT 25002)

BOBBY HAMILTON

● The new APT label makes a most promising debut with a tremendous coupling by a young rock and roll performer, Bobby Hamilton. Working against a low-down, hip-swinging rock-a-ballad back-drop, the songster belts out a torrid item dubbed "Crazy Eyes For You". Powerful deck that'll have the kids flippin'. But don't sell the other deck short. It's another exciting R & R ballad. Hamilton is here to stay.

"I DIG YOU BABY" (1:43)

[Geronimo BMI—M. Rainwater, B. Stevenson]

MARVIN RAINWATER (MGM 12665)

● The "Gonna Find Me A Bluebird" lad, riding in the #1 spot on England's best sellers with "Whole Lotta Woman", has a big side for the pop market in the above. Strong deck to watch. (See Country Reviews).

"OP" (2:10) [Springton ASCAP—Fisher]

THE HONEYCONES (Ember 1036)

● Ember has gone back to the well. It picked up this master in Philadelphia, home of its other hot purchase, "Get A Job", and early indications are that they made another good buy. (See r & b reviews.)

HENRY MANCINI

(Coral 61990)

B "LOVE THEME FROM 'THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV'" (2:35) [Robbins ASCAP — Kaper] The touching theme of the hit MGM flicker is tearfully fashioned by Henry Mancini's string filled orchestra. Lovely melody with crying violins and that sentimental European mood. Beautifully executed.

C+ "TANA'S THEME" (2:37) [Northern ASCAP — Mancini] Mancini penned this half for the U-I pic "Touch of Evil". Slow waltz number with a piano neatly showcased by strings. Charming listening.

DAVID CARROLL ORCH.

(Mercury 71307)

B "DUCKY" (1:54) [Miller ASCAP — Bones] A Clyde McCoyish muted trumpet is in the spotlight as David Carroll's ork prances lightly thru this colorful instrumental novelty. Happy bounce ditty that should enjoy considerable air play. Shuffle rhythm is good for dancing.

B "DO YOU EVER THINK OF ME" (2:11) [Miller ASCAP—Burtnett, Kerr, Cooper] Saxes come front-and-center as Carroll's men offer a smooth R & R instrumental arrangement of a wonderful oldie. Inviting listening.

MADELINE KERN

(Eclipse 1660)

B "MY MUSIC BOX" (2:32) [Shoe-string BMI — Michell, Michell, Thorn] The lark warmly recollects in this delicate waltzer, the fond memories recalled by the sound of the instrument. Miss Kern's vehicle is a melody one is likely to hear in a music box, and the ork work beautifully captures its atmosphere. Deejays will like the sentiments here.

C+ "MIRAGE IN THE NIGHT" (3:03) [Mills ASCAP — Jones, Fredericks] A reflective ballad gets a proper blues feel from the artist and combo accompaniment.

MARLIN GREENE

(RCA Victor 7259)

B "NEVER BEEN KISSED" (2:10) [Tree-Tune BMI—Harlan] Vocalist Greene takes on a rapid-fire number the teen crowd will enjoy having in their disk collection. The artist's delivery and strong guitar backing, both in rock-a-billy vein, are aided by some gals repeating the title in various spots. Solid teen fare.

B "BALLAD OF LOVE" (2:32) [Tree-Tune BMI—Hall, Sherrill] A sincere treatment by Greene of an exotic love song describing the vagaries of love.

"MADMAN" JONES

(Mad 1207)

B "JESS' ONE MO' TIME" [Josette BMI —] An exciting combo opening kicks off this fast-moving vocal-instrumental. Throughout the pressing, too, the combo arrangement has a measure of rock 'n roll originality. Kids will like listening to this one.

B "OH HENRY" [Josette BMI—] This all instrumental showing has a fine, jazz-inclined feeling.

SAMMY KAYE ORCH.

(Columbia 41178)

B "THAT DAFFODIL FEELIN'" (2:14) [World ASCAP—Stone] Sammy Kaye and the Kaydets sprightly dance thru a contagious spring-time ditty. Barry Frank handles the lead vocal chores. Pleasant listening.

B "SPAIN" (2:45) [Isham Jones ASCAP—Kahn, Jones] An inviting rhumba beat number is fashioned in rhumba dance style by the maestro. Toward the conclusion, voices join in. Another good dance deck.

THE FOUR MARKSMEN

(Radio 107)

B "THE BIRTH OF LOVE" (2:06) [Dandelion BMI — Barton] This hard-driving rocker contains a polished rendering of some typical rock 'n roll gimmicks by the quartet. Most of the way a lead voice recites the lyrics, while the remaining threesome unload the devices.

C+ "ONE LOVE" (2:05) [Duchess BMI—Barton] A nice arrangement by the crew on a tune resembling "Memories Are Made Of This."

JOSE MELIS
(MGM 12464)

B "ARGENTINA BALLERINA" (2:07) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—Discant, Meyer] Pianist Melis, a regular on the Jack Paar TV stint, colorfully reads the bright and breezy instrumental novelty, and achieves what many deejays will figure a bit of fresh air on their programming schedule.

B "MANDOLINA" (2:00) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—Melis, Marino] The scene changes to an Italian locale, but a genial atmosphere is retained in Melis' and a combo's organ-grinder effect on a sweet waltzer.

LEW CONETTA
(Decca 30601)

B "THAT SURE WOULD BE CRAZY" (1:55) [Figure BMI—McCoy] Rhythmically tuned to teen tastes, Conetta and the vocal-instrumental support heartily ponder the "if" if certain wishes came true. The artist pounds the rock 'n roll beat with a good measure of authority. Kids can sure dance to this one.

C+ "HOLLER 'LOVE'" (2:40) [Roosevelt BMI—Chase] Conetta and crew still set their sights on the r&r market as they romp through another big beat item.

JACKIE LEE COCHRAN
(ABC-Paromount 9930)

B "BUY A CAR" (2:14) [Ranger ASCAP—Beck] Cochran, in sizzling vocal form, describes his tin lizzy, while a chorus of gals squeak a "buy-a-car" gimmick. Instrumental backing keeps the proceedings red-hot. Should get favorable teen sales response.

C+ "I WANT YOU" (1:53) [Ranger ASCAP—Beck] More of the same here on a torrid rocker.

FERN DEE
(Ember 1035)

B "HELLO MR. DREAM MAN" (2:30) [Milton Kellem ASCAP—Parker, Greiner, Scheck] The waxing is the 13 year old thrush's initial effort for Ember, and involves a power-packed production on a hard beat romancer. A new teen voice that may get around via this striking performance.

B "YOU'LL NEVER KNOW" (2:30) [B.V.C. ASCAP—Gordon, Warren] Miss Dee invitingly renders the evergreen in rock 'n roll terms. Another strong reading from the youngster.

DAVID ROSE
(MGM 12652)

B "PUNCH AND JUDY" (2:11) [Barton ASCAP—Cesana] Always good for some orchestral fun, Rose and the ork engagingly hop and skip through a bit of charming pastry. Actually, most of the affair consists of a single melodic line that reaches resounding proportions at the conclusion. Happy deejay release.

C+ "CHAPO" (2:10) [David Rose ASCAP—Rose] A colorful, Latin-like tidbit is set to an appealing mambo beat by the ork.

DEBBIE AND THE DIPLOMATS
(Stephens 1826)

B "BURNIN' THE TORCH" (1:59) [Bob-Cor BMI—Mascari-Wenzlaff] A ballad opening suddenly turns into a scintillating swinger in this hopper from the vocal combo. Platter spinners will find the disk's obvious teen ingredients a turn-table winner.

B "UNCHANGABLE HEART" (1:57) [Bob-Cor BMI—Mascari-Wenzlaff] A feel of group ballad efforts of the forties plus some modern day harmony are nicely integrated by the group on a sentimental pleaser.

FRANKIE DAY
(Big B 1010)

B "TWO LITTLE KISSES" (2:24) [Miller ASCAP—Conover] Songster Day displays this catchy jumper to above-board advantage. Backed by a spirited combo-female chorus, the dynamic Day delivery has the drive the kids will appreciate. Could catch on.

C+ "WAITING" (2:17) [Miller ASCAP—Barnes] A dramatic beat performance by Day is a change-of-pace, though less commercial, attraction on this portion.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG
(Decca 30624)

B "WHEN YOU'RE SMILING (THE WHOLE WORLD SMILES WITH YOU)" (3:12) [Mills ASCAP—Shay, Fisher, Goodwin] The re-issue is a relaxed run-through of the evergreen in the familiar gravel-voiced meanderings of Armstrong. When the deejay wants moments of peaks into the disk past, here's a waxing to be included.

B "NOBODY KNOWS THE TROUBLE I'VE SEEN" (2:58) [Northern ASCAP—Arr. & adapted by Sy Oliver] The famed spiritual is affectionately performed by the artist, who also recites some re-assuring dialogue in several spots.

London Lowdown

For the first time two well established American recording stars find their way into our Hit Parade. So, welcome to Vic Damone who with his Philips Columbia recording of "On the Street Where You Live" and Johnny Mathis with "Teacher Teacher".

Three more entries: Ella Fitzgerald's vocal of "Swingin' Shepherd Blues", David Seville's "Witch Doctor" closely followed by the H.M.V. recording by Don Lang. All are glad to see the Everly Brothers on our charts with "All I Have To Do Is Dream". This confirms Archie Bleyer's belief that the side he banked on in the U.S. will be the big one in this country.

Although Perry Como's recording of "I May Never Pass This Way Again" has just been released, there is every possibility that he may grace the charts with it very soon.

Had the pleasure of meeting those two prolific writers Al Hoffman and Dick Manning yesterday in Eddie Kussner's office. I suggest to all who know Al that they ask him how business is. The answer is one of the funniest I have yet seen from any successful song writer.

"St. Louis Blues", which opened in London this week, may not be a picture for jazz lovers but certainly gives plenty of entertainment.

The pleasure Gardens at Battersea Park were opened last week with a host of stars from the entertainment business attending. Proceeds reaching over 6,000 dollars went once again to the Variety Club of Great Britain.

Winifred Atwell booked for a six month tour of Australia starting in October.

Through the Eurovision Television link we will have the pleasure of seeing the Benny Goodman Band from the Brussels World's Fair. And while on the subject of Continental items, Sarah Vaughan at the moment is doing fabulous business in Stockholm and is returning to this country for more nudeville engagements.

Dave Kapp, who returned to the States recently, reports his latest Roger Williams disk "Young and Warm and Wonderful" looks like another hit.

Max Bygraves very happy at the response to his song "You Need Hands" in the U.S. He's hoping that his record will get some of the sales. Bygraves' "Tulips from Amsterdam" now fluctuating at the top in our various charts over here.

The three Beverley Sisters off to Holland this week for a guest TV appearance.

Producer Jack Good originator of the BBC "6-5 Special" teenage show went over to the Commercial network and will be launching a show of a similar type very shortly titled "Oh Boy."

The "New Musical Express" offices move to new premises this week.

Broadway To Disks

NEW YORK — Lola Fisher, the "My Fair Lady" understudy and chorus girl who's played the show's lead part some 58 times, autographs her new Cadence LP "From Here To Yonder" for fan Ed Mulhare, "My Fair Lady" leading man. Lilting Lola sings twelve original songs penned especially for her by the new husband and wife song writing team of Gloria and Noel Regney. Words and music were inspired by old balade and roundelay forms brought up to date for the LP.

Sinsheimer Answers Cash Box Editorial, "Manufacturers May Cause Their Own Downfall"

The Cash Box
1721 Broadway
New York, New York
Attn: Mr. Sid Parnes
Editor-in-Chief

Dear Sir:

The manufacturer may cause his own downfall by killing the goose (Distributor) that lays his golden eggs. The record business, no question, has grown by leaps and bounds in the past decade. The manufacturer, distributor, and retailer have prospered beyond all expectations. The distributor will continue to pay off the manufacturer in returns as long as the manufacturer records "Stiffs". Dead records are like "Homing Pigeons"; they will eventually return home to the manufacturer.

Your editorial of May 31st, 1958, states that the manufacturer is dissatisfied with the distributor:

- A. Because the manufacturer is paid off in returns by the distributor.
- B. Because the manufacturer thinks that the distributor does not promote.

I would like to answer these two complaints. The reason the distributor has an abnormal return of records to the manufacturer is because:

- 1. The insistence of the manufacturer on selling records to the distributor that are not commercial. The manufacturer should pre-test the sale of every record that he releases.
- 2. He should trans-ship surplus records of a good number from one distributor to another when the records cease to sell in that territory.
- 3. He should not jump a hit unless he is well aware of the consequence.
- 4. The manufacturer helped to create the rack jobber. In doing this, he did not calculate what the returns would be. When he woke up to the fact that the distributor would have to take back 30% of the returns from the rack jobber, the manufacturer threw up his hands and cried, "The distributor is taking advantage of me".

- 5. Shipments on guaranteed sales are forgotten by the manufacturer, but not by the distributor.

Does the distributor promote records properly? From my personal observation of the promotion work of the distributors in other sections of the United States and the promotion work we do here, I would like to give you the distributor's point of view on this subject.

- 1. All disk jockey copies that manufacturers send to their distributor are mailed to the radio and television stations. It is not the fault of the distributor if the manufacturer does not send him an ample supply of disk jockey copies. The manufacturer does not pay for this mailing.
- 2. All distributors have one or more promotional men working. In our case, the manufacturer does not assist us in paying for this expense.
- 3. We have our own radio shows. On these shows, no other record by any other manufacturer can be played. We can plug any record we want as many times as we wish.
- 4. Newspaper advertising. Our auditor recently advised us to curtail 50% of our newspaper advertising as it was his opinion that we were spending too much for this medium of advertising.
- 5. When Imperial, Dot, and Roulette Companies had special Cash Box Magazine promotions, all of their distributors co-operated and ran advertisements.
- 6. The new deal of promotion is for the recording artists to appear on our local television shows. This necessitates an expense to us for meals, transportation, and entertainment while they are our guests.
- 7. And many other promotional expenses of which manufacturers are well aware.

I would appreciate your considering all the above points of my argument.

Very truly yours,
ALLEN DISTRIBUTING CO., INC.

In The Driver's Seat

SAN FRANCISCO—Literally in the driver's seat as a result of mounting sales, maestro Lester Lanin, in form of a display easel, hops along with this city's Epic distributor, Tony Valerio, left, and Al Bramy, right. The young lady is a model, Dee Hill, who presented the collegiate "beanies" to Tony and Al and the deejays to help plug the new best-seller, "Lester Lanin Goes to College," Epic album.

David Greenman Forms Promotion Firm

NEW YORK—David M. Greenman, a twelve-year veteran in the music and record business, has set up his own record-record artists promotion firm, Associated Promotions, 1270 Sixth Avenue, New York.

The outfit is currently representing the National Recording Corporation (NRC) of Atlanta as its representative in the entire Eastern area. Also in the Associated Promotion fold is the singles department of Seeco and Dawn Records.

Greenman's career in the industry began with Leo Feist Music in 1946, and has also included five years in sales and promotion at Times Columbia in New York, a year and a half at Columbia Records on the national promotion staff, and field exploitation work with United Artist Pictures, and MGM Records.

Sunbeam Pacts Lillian Briggs & Eddie Fontane

NEW YORK — Sunbeam Records has pacted vocalist Lillian Briggs and Eddie Fontane.

Miss Briggs' initial entry for the diskery will coincide with her opening at the Chez Paree in Chicago on June 4th. In the same city, Sunbeam will throw a deejay cocktail party for the artist.

Columbia Signs Kitty Kallen

NEW YORK — Kitty Kallen has signed a long term recording pact with the Columbia label, according to an announcement by the artist's manager and husband Budd Granoff.

Under the new pact, Miss Kallen will record both singles and LP's. Her first session will be cut in the near future.

The new Columbia pact re-unites Kitty Kallen with Mitch Miller, the label's A & R top per. Kitty recorded for Mercury when Mitch Miller was the label's A & R head.

Back in the 40's, Miss Kallen recorded for Columbia with the Harry James band and was the vocalist on James' smash waxing, "I'm Beginning To See the Light," and many other hits.

From Mercury, Kitty went to Decca where she produced the biggest hit of her career, "Little Things Mean a Lot."

In The Cash Box' Juke Box Poll of 1954, "Little Things" was chosen by coin ops as the biggest money-making song of that year. Kitty had another major hit at Decca, "In the Chapel In the Moonlight."

SPA Becomes AGAC

NEW YORK—Burton Lane, president of the Songwriters Protective Association, announced last week that the twenty-seven-year-old organization has formally changed its name to the American Guild of Authors and Composers.

The American Guild of Authors and Composers is an association organized in 1931 by Billy Rose, George Meyer and Edgar Leslie and is composed mostly of popular writers including: Hoagy Carmichael, Oscar Hammerstein, II, Richard Rodgers, Johnny Mercer, Ira Gershwin, Dorothy Fields, Jimmy McHugh and Frank Loesser. However, the Guild's current membership of twenty-eight hundred (2800) writers also claims such diverse and serious composers and authors as George Antheil, Ferde Grofe, Langston Hughes, Leonard Pennario, Elie Siegmeister and Dr. Leroy Shield.

Under its new name, the American Guild of Authors and Composers now plans to expand its activities and services to embrace all creators in the music field.

Carlton Claims 2-Sider In Jack Scott Disk

NEW YORK—Joe Carlton, prexy of Carlton Records, reported early last week that his Jack Scott pressing of "My True Love," and "Leroy" had developed into a two-sided sales success.

Quoting a quarter of a million disks sold, Carlton supported his two-sided hit announcement with a city by city breakdown of sales and the top side in each market. A total of 103,000 disks sold were reported in the following cities favoring the "Leroy" side: Cincinnati, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Boston, New York, Newark, Chicago, Detroit, Charlotte. Sales of 47,500 were recorded in the following cities giving the nod to "My True Love": Minneapolis-St. Paul, Albany, Houston, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Richmond, Miami, Oklahoma.

Sales of 75,000 were distributed among Buffalo (both sides), Los Angeles ("Leroy"), Baltimore, Washington, Hartford, Dallas, and Honolulu.

First Copy

NEW YORK—Bela Herskovits, the world renowned Cantor (right) presents the first copy of his new MGM long playing album titled "This Is Your Life Cantor" to Leo Fuld singing-owner of the Cafe Sahbra Israeli nightclub in New York City. Cantor Herskovits was honored at the Sahbra with a testimonial dinner recently for his outstanding work in bettering relationships between both Continents through his singing efforts.

Station Honors N. R. Co. Records

ATLANTA, GA. — The National Recording Company, N.R.Co., one of the South's newest record manufacturing operations, was saluted by Atlanta station WYZE recently when the station broadcast from sign-on at 5:30 AM until noon on May 21 from the plush studio and offices of N.R.Co.

Although it was a program dedicated to N.R.Co. recordings as well as N.R.Co. artists, the first guest interviewed by dee jay Paul Parle was Jerry Reed, a Capitol artist. Ray Stevens, another Capitol performer, and composer of N.R.Co.'s latest release "Make Me Smile Again" by Darrell Glenn, also appeared on the show. It began to look like a Capitol promotion when Ken Nelson, Capitol A & R, visited the office.

Bill Lowery, president of N.R.Co., expressed his appreciation for the honor WYZE bestowed upon the diskery. Lowery said that he felt right at home facing the microphone since prior to getting into the music business, he was a dee jay.

The three gents shown above are Ken Nelson, Bill Lowery and Paul Parle. Insets show (top) Joy Hood, seventeen-year-old vocalist recently signed by N.R.Co., as she is interviewed by Parle and (bottom) Claire Rothrock, composer of "Old Cape Cod", now turning out words and music for the diskery, as she speaks to Parle.

POPULAR

"PAUL ANKA"—with Orchestra conducted by Don Costa—ABC Paramount ABC-240 (1-12" LP)

The young star vocalist, on his initial LP effort, spotlights a group of evergreens with the same infectious delivery that made "Diana" a smash. Don Costa and company, going full brass ahead, issue rhythmic backing. One outstanding opus is "Sing, Sing, Sing". Looks like a big seller for ABC.

"WHO'S SORRY NOW"—Connie Francis—MGM E-3686 (1-12" LP)

Connie Francis' recent chart smasher, "Who's Sorry Now" is done here along with a host of oldies. Miss Francis has a light gently swinging delivery, and it is smoothly supported by an orchestra under the direction of Joe Lipman. Some of the familiar items are "I'm Beginning To See The Light", "How Deep Is The Ocean" and "It's The Talk Of The Town". The thrush sounds like she could be very big in the album line. Important tie-in with lark's single successes.

"ROCK 'N' ROLL WITH FRANKIE LYMON"—Frankie Lymon—Roulette R-25036 (1-12" LP)

The teen idol programs a dozen recent big beat items. The little songster lends his hearty vocal chords to the likes of "Jailhouse Rock", "Diana", "Searchin'", and "Send For Me." Support by the Rydy Trayler orchestra is fine. Stand-out platter that will certainly make a gallant stand in the sales department.

"FORBIDDEN ISLAND"—The Exotic Sounds of Martin Denny—Liberty 3081 (1-12" LP)

In the tradition of Denny's previous lure-of-the-islands successes, "Exotica" (vol. 1 and 2), the platter is a no-orchestral holds-barred collection of such likely items as "Bali Hai", "Port Au Prince", "March Of The Siamese Children," and nine other striking numbers. Outstanding sound. Should be on hand for the "Exotica" crowd.

"BRIGADOON"—Shirley Jones—Jack Cassidy—Susan Johnson—Frank Porretta—Orchestra and Chorus Under The Direction of Lehman Engel—Columbia CL 1132 (1-12" LP)

This newly recorded presentation of the initial triumph by Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner, authors of "My Fair Lady," and the film musical "Gigi," is an expert rendition of the charming score by some old hands at musical comedy revivals on Columbia. Led by the sparkling ork-chorus direction of Lehman Engel, the Shirley Jones-Jack Cassidy (man and wife)—Susan Johnson-Frank Porretta combination keep the lively and lyrical songs ("Almost Like Being In Love," "I'll Go Home With Bonnie Jean," "The Heather On The Hill") rolling off with polish. The magic of Lerner-Loewe will add considerable sales zest to the production.

"WINDJAMMER"—Original Musical Score By Morton Gould—Columbia CL 1158 (1-12" LP)

The disk contains musical themes and songs from the Cinemiracle offering "Windjammer," built-around a picturesque Norwegian sailing-ship known as a windjammer. A Caribbean stop-over forms the basis of most of the score's color, and includes a lovely Pablo Casals' interlude on the cello, "Catalan Melody." Terry Gilkyson and The Easy Riders and members of the actual crew handle the vocal sea-chanties. Handsome packaging. Many will see the entry as a colorful souvenir of the film.

"ROCK AROUND THE CLOCK"—Alan Freed and his Rock 'n Roll Band—Coral CRL-57213 (1-12" LP)

The issue features the famed deejay and his band plus vocals by such names as Buddy Holly, Billie Williams and The Modernaires. The waxing was inspired by Alan Freed's very successful run at the New York Paramount theater recently. The set has Williams doing "Don't Let Go", Holly offering "I'm Gonna Love You Too", The Modernaires doing "Act Your Age."

"AND GOD CREATED WOMAN"—The Sound Track Album—Decca DL-8685 (1-12" LP)

This soundtrack of the Brigitte Bardot motion picture contains some beautiful music. The score offers many different moods and is strikingly rendered under the direction of R. Vadim. Adding a little accent to the waxing are liberal comments by Bardot in French. Miss Bardot's U.S. fame is the big sales feature here.

"LATIN JEWELS"—Tito Rodriguez—Tico LP-1047 (1-12" LP)

The respected Latin rhythms of the Rodriguez crew stick to the cha cha on an appropriate listing of Latin mainstays. Fortunately for the richly melodious tunes, Rodriguez keeps a sympathetic eye toward a melodic line, while upholding an unerring cha cha beat. Selections include "Green Eyes," "Amapola," "Frenesi," and "The Peanut Vendor." Attractive package. A reliable Latin dance-step release.

"TURKISH DELIGHT"—Mike Sarkissian and his Cafe Bagdad Ensemble—Audio Fidelity AFLP-1867 (1-12" LP)

Mike Sarkissian, a great interpreter of Middle Eastern music, delivers a striking follow up to his recent "Armenian Wedding" entry, which dealt with the same type of music. The colorful sounds are descriptive of a Turkish Festival, complete with chants from the musicians. The true high fidelity reproduction is sure to please sound enthusiasts. Excellent presentations from the Cafe Bagdad Ensemble.

"SEA SHELLS"—Peggy Lee—Decca DL-8591 (1-12" LP)

Miss Lee Offers a pressing of peaceful, traditional type songs. Offering their worthy support are Stella Castellucci on harp and Gene DiNovi on the harpsichord. Peggy Lee goes over such tunes as "The Riddle Song", "The Wearing Of The Green", "Little Old Car", and a number of Chinese Love poems. The artist delivers the items with a distant moody feeling. The entry makes for a nice change of pace effort.

"OLE BUTTERMILK SKY"—Hoagy Carmichael—Kapp KL-1086 (1-12" LP)

The platter showcases the familiar tunes of the writer-singer and a few never before recorded originals. The more familiar selections are "Ole Buttermilk Sky", "In The Cool, Cool Of The Evening", and "Doctor, Lawyer, Indian Chief". Delightful program that will appeal to Carmichael fans.

"WARM AND EASY"—Jeff Chandler with the Spencer-Hagen Orchestra—Liberty LPR-3074 (1-12" LP)

On his second LP, the actor-songster delivers the tunes with the poise of a veteran. Chandler smoothly uses his warm, sincere delivery to great advantage as he offers, the items (including two originals). The romantic bill includes, "Somebody Loves Me", "Stay As Sweet As You Are", and "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm". Chandler receives the flowery support of the Spencer-Hagen Orchestra. Name value offering.

Album Reviews

FRANK DE VOL PORTRAITS

"PORTRAITS"—Frank DeVol and his Orchestra—Columbia CL-1108 (1-12" LP)

Frank DeVol and his orchestra dedicate the waxing to twelve bright names in the music business. The maestro creates the portraits by offering pleasant versions of tunes closely associated with such personalities as Johnny Mathis ("Chances Are"), Errol Garner ("Dreamy"), Tony Bennett ("Stranger In Paradise") and others. Extremely tasty entry that could catch on.

"CHET ATKINS AT HOME"—Chet Atkins—RCA Victor LPM-1544 (1-12" LP)

Chet Atkins arranged and recorded each selection in his own home. The inventive guitarist goes it alone except for an entirely new instrument that Atkins developed in his home laboratory, called an electronic brain. The instrument automatically plays the right bass note at the right time without the use of buttons or foot-pedals. "April In Portugal", "Nagasaki" and "Your Just In Love" are among the tunes read. Slick guitar issue.

"DANCE MUSIC FOR MOM AND DAD"—Paul Renard At The Organ—King 545 (1-12" LP)

True to its title, the disk is a sentimental organ recital of tunes and dance-steps (tango, waltz, two-step, etc.) which took up most of mom and dad's dance time years ago. The eighteen song bill is dished out with a sweet yesterday warmth by organist Renard, and includes such remembrances as "Say It With Music," "Merry Widow Waltz," and "Poor Butterfly." Keep on hand for the mature traffic.

"BLUE MOUNTAIN"—Terry Gilkyson and the Easy Riders—Columbia CL-1103 (1-12" LP)

Gilkyson and the Easy Riders, Rich Dehr and Frank Miller, smoothly blend in this collection of folk ballads. The group's pleasing guitar accompaniment adds spice to the moving readings. Two of the set's guitar items are originals by the group called "Weary Travlin' Blues" and "Shorty Joe". The record will definitely appeal to the group's many fans.

"MY ENCHANTED CITY"—Music conducted by David Rose and his Orchestra—Seal LS-1530 (1-12" LP)

The songs from a new musical composition written by Libby and Stephen McNeal, offer a happy, colorful picture of San Francisco. David Rose's orchestra plus vocal accompaniment perform especially well in a selection called "Four Moods In Memory," a romantic piece in four parts narrated by Don Sherwood.

JAZZ

"BARBARA"—The Barbara Carroll Trio—Verve MGV-2095 (1-12" LP)

Jazz femme Barbara Carroll guides her trio through extremely palatable versions of a mostly evergreen ballad program. The pianist puts her fresh, inventive ideas to great advantage with the help of her bassist and drummer. Tunes are "It Might As Well Be Spring", "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face", "Love Is Just Around The Corner" etc. Excellent jazz-shelf item.

"LET YOURSELF GO"—Mark Murphy with Ralph Burns and his Orchestra—Decca DL-8632 (1-12" LP)

The album is a swinging follow up to the songster's initial LP "Meet Mark Murphy". The songster has a colorful delivery, and is attractively backed by the Ralph Burns orchestra. The whole collection of songs has a light airy feeling. "Taking A Chance On Love", "Pick Yourself Up", "Lullaby In Rhythm" and "Ridin' High" are among the tunes receiving the tasty arrangements. The vocalist has a lot to say in jazz vocalizing.

Lars Gullin Swings

"LARS GULLIN SWINGS"—Lars Gullin Quartet, Quintet, Sextet, Octet and Big Band—East-West 4003 (1-12" LP)

Lars Gullin's verile baritone sax is the showcase of the record. Gullin, one of Sweden's gifted jazz musicians, plays with a number of different groupings here. The saxist is supported by some of Sweden's top musicians as he turns in top grade readings of "Jeepers Creepers", "Like Someone In Love", "Lover Come Back To Me", "Yesterdays" and others. Fine performances that will definitely add to the musician's growing following. Will catch on in the jazz circles.

"BILL HARRIS AND FRIENDS"—Bill Harris—Fantasy 3263 (1-12" LP)

Bill Harris' ever fluent trombone takes on seven evergreens. Harris' "friends", Ben Webster on sax, Stan Levey on drums, Red Mitchell on bass and Jimmie Rowles at piano, team to offer some soothing readings. The tunes done are all slow moody items that offer lots of relaxing jazz. Standout tune is "Just One More Chance", where a humorous conversation between Harris and Webster is heard. Top names will make this an attractive LP.

CLASSICAL THE MOLDAU
THE PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA
EUGENE ORMANDY, CONDUCTOR

"THE MOLDAU"—"SMETANA"—The Moldau—WEBER: Invitation To The Dance — LISZT: Mephisto Waltz — BERLOIZ: Minuet Of The Will O' The Wisps — Dance Of The Sylphs—Rakoczy March — The Philadelphia Orchestra—Eugene Ormandy, Conductor—Columbia ML 5261 (1-12" LP)

The famed ork and conductor are due for sizeable publicity thanks to a current European tour (which includes Russia). On a program of orchestral favorites, including three portions from Berloiz's "The Damnation," the acclaimed Philadelphia strings are given ample opportunity for a dazzling display of virtuosity. Fine sound. Impressive classical-catalogue issue.

BEETHOVEN: Violin Concerto In D Major—Fritz Kreisler, Violin—London Philharmonic Orchestra Conducted By Sir John Barbirolli—Angel COLH 11 (1-12" LP)

The disk, tabbed under Angel's Great Recordings of the Century monicker, is a performance of the great work, which Kreisler pressed back in 1936. Purchasers will be willing, undoubtedly, to forgo a lesser, though acceptable, hi-fi sound for a reading of the concerto that possesses the grandeur of Kreisler's interpretation here. An accompanying booklet extensively covers the historical and musical values of the opus.

COPLAND: Billy The Kid-Rodeo—Morton Gould And His Orchestra—RCA Victor LM-2195 (1-12" LP)

Copland's two modern day ballet classics form a double-bill here that admirers of ballet scores should turn to with enthusiasm. The more recorded "Billy The Kid" horse-ballet has been scored as a suite by conductor-composer Gould. Hi-fi sound, a must for two superbly orchestrated pieces as these, retains a high standard throughout. Excellent orchestral fare.

BRAHMS: The Sonatas for Violin and Piano—Eudice Shapiro, violin—Ralph Berkowitz, piano—Vanguard VRS-1009 (1-12" LP)

The 1, 2, 3 violin-piano sonatas of the great composer are taken through beautiful readings by the two virtuosos. Miss Shapiro plays the violin with authority and finesse, and Berkowitz' expressive piano also offers refined interpretations. Sonata No. 1 is read with thrilling poise and understanding as the musicians capture it's romance and lyrical beauty. Make readily available for the classical coterie.

PROKOFIEV: Concerto No. 3 in C Major For Piano and Orchestra—Piero Coppola conducting the London Symphony Orchestra—Angel COLH 34 (1-12" LP)

This record, featuring the late composer at the piano is a must for all classical collections. The master composer-musician is presented in a recital he made with the musically advanced London Symphony Orchestra in June 1932. The composer's melodic work is programmed in it's full essence by the musicians. A Great Recording of the Century disk.

Private Party At The Round Table Gala Affair

Celebrity Packed House Helps Levy-Kahl Launch N.Y.'s Newest Nitery

NEW YORK — One of the most exciting, celebrity-filled affairs in recent night club history was the special private premiere party at The Roundtable, handsome new night club and restaurant at 151 East 50th Street, on the site formerly occupied by the Versailles. It is now owned by Morris Levy, prexy of Roulette Records, and several music publishing companies in partnership with Phil Kahl. The gala affair took place on May 4th, the night before The Roundtable's official opening for the general public. It is fast becoming one of the top rendezvous for show world celebs and music industry notables. The party began at 6 o'clock, ran until the 4 A.M. curfew hour. Entertainment throughout the night was supplied by the Joe Bushkin and Teddy Wilson combos, currently starring nightly at The Roundtable, along with Count Basie, as an extra added attraction, leading a rhythm-packed sextet from the famous Basie ork. A special highlight was Steve Allen's national telecasting of 10 minutes of the talk-of-the-town Roundtable party, as part of his regular Sunday night show. Among the notables who glamorized the affair were Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, Lena Horne, Ann Sheridan, Red Buttons, Rory Calhoun, Patti Page, Jose Ferrer, Xavier Cugat and his beauteous Abbe Lane, the Arthur Murrays, the Ames Brothers, such famous 4th Estaters as Louis Sobol and wife Peggy, Dorothy Kilgallen with husband Dick Kollmar, Danton Walker, Jim O'Connor, and Frank Farrell; such top disk jocks as Martin Block, Art Ford and Murray Kaufman; Jimmy Durante, Dick Clark, society beauties Mrs. William Rhinelandier Stewart, Hope Hampton and Elaine Lorrillard, Tony Martin and Cyd Charisse, Doris Day and hubby Marty Melcher, Decca prexy Milton Rackmil, discdom's Bob Thiele, Anne Baxter, Charles Addams, Tommy Manville with gorgeous Greta Thyssen, plus many more prominent music publishers and record industry VIPs.

ASCAP Amendment Empowers Complaint Committee To Initiate Inquiries Into Any Alleged Violations Of Articles of Assn.

NEW YORK—President Paul Cunningham's proposed resolution for an amendment to the ASCAP Articles of Association pertaining to the Society's Complaint Committee, was passed last week by the writer and publisher members of the Society, Louis Alter, chairman of the ASCAP Committee on Election, announced. The amendment empowers the ASCAP Complaint Committee to initiate inquiries into any alleged violations of the Society's Articles of Association. Under the amendment an impartial Panel will determine whether a member has violated the Articles, and whether the member is to be censured, fined, suspended or expelled.

In his letter to the members of May 2 enclosing the ballot, Cunningham called the membership's attention to the regulations concerning false reports of performances. That Regulation adopted by the Board of Directors on January 14, 1957, reads as follows:

"Causing false reports of performances. Any member who causes, or who induces or procures a performing artist or any other person to cause, a licensee of the Society to submit a false report to the Society of performances of compositions written, composed or published by such member, shall be guilty of the commission of an act derogatory to the welfare of and prejudicial to the Society, and shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings therefor as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this resolution. Any member who aids or abets, or conspires with, another person or persons to cause the submission of such a false report to the Society, shall similarly be guilty of the commission of an act derogatory to the welfare of and prejudicial to the Society, and shall be subject to such disciplinary proceedings. This rule shall apply only with respect to programs broadcast or otherwise performed subsequent to the date of the adoption of this resolution."

The amendment reads as follows:

"RESOLVED: That Section 4 of Article XIV of the Articles of Association relating to the Complaint Committee be amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 4. COMPLAINT COMMITTEE. The Complaint Committee shall consist of five members of the Board.

"Any member against whom a complaint is made before this Committee of violation or as to whom the Committee may at any time initiate an inquiry into any alleged violation of the Articles of Association, the by-laws or any resolution of the Society, or of the Board of Directors, regulating the conduct of the members, or of any conduct or proceeding inconsistent with the Articles of Association, or of misconduct, fraud, fraudulent acts or acts derogatory to the welfare of or prejudicial to the Society, shall be notified thereof, and if he desires he shall be heard in his defense, and shall be afforded an opportunity to examine all charges, papers and evidence submitted to the Committee and to make answer thereto. The Committee shall have the power to make rules respecting hearings upon such complaints, and, upon notification, to require any member to appear before the Committee and answer all pertinent questions asked of him and furnish any and all relevant information sought by the Committee in connection with any complaint or inquiry. A member who fails or refuses so to appear before the Committee or to furnish such relevant information shall be deemed to have acted in a manner derogatory to the welfare of and prejudicial to the Society, and shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings therefor in the manner herein provided. Proceedings before the Committee shall be confidential, and shall be disclosed only as the Directors order, after the proceedings have been reported to them.

"Unless the Committee finds there are no grounds for further proceedings, it shall refer the matter to an impartial Panel for hearing. For such purposes, the impartial Panel shall be selected as follows: The accused member shall, within twenty days after notice, select two members of the Society, and the Complaint Committee shall also select two members of the Society (who may or may not be members of the Committee). In the event of the accused member failing to select two members within the prescribed time, the Board of Directors shall select the two members for him. The four members so selected shall agree upon three persons who may, but need not, be members of the Society, and who shall constitute the impartial Panel. In the event the four designated members fail to agree on three members of the Panel, the American Arbitration Association shall designate the person or persons needed to complete the Panel.

"The compensation of the Panel members shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. In the hearing, which shall be relatively informal, before the impartial Panel so selected, the Complaint Committee must establish the offense charged and the accused member shall be entitled to a full and fair hearing, and both the accused member and the Complaint Committee shall be entitled to have counsel. If the impartial Panel, by majority vote, shall find a member guilty of the charge, the Panel may, in its discretion, censure, fine, suspend or expel such member, and the decision of the Panel shall be conclusive and final, and the Board of Directors shall take measures to carry out such decision."

Film Scored By John Lewis To Open In New York

NEW YORK—"No Sun in Venice", a French film distributed by Kingsley-International Pictures, will make its American debut Saturday, June 7, at the Little Carnegie Theatre in New York.

The picture, which stars Francoise Arnoul, is of special interest to jazz fans in that the score was written by John Lewis and recorded in its entirety by The Modern Jazz Quartet. Atlantic Records has recently released the "No Sun in Venice" score, as played by the Modern Jazz Quartet, in an LP.

Grand Award Issues First Stereo Disks

NEW YORK—Grand Award is bringing out its first series of stereo LP's in two weeks which will be ballyhooed by an ad campaign in the New York Times and trade sheets.

Enoch Light, director of A & R, has been working with engineers Robert Fine, Peter Jackson and George Piro to eliminate surface noise and to perfect the cut. Many months were spent in solving technical problems. Through their research they have developed a Grand Award "Phase X" process which they say, eliminates the "hole in the middle effect" until now associated with two channel tape and disk. The diskery also stated that the usable volume level has been increased and they have cut down on surface noise thus producing a stereo record which, when reproduced under proper conditions, is almost indistinguishable from the original tape.

The initial Grand Award release will spotlight eight stereo albums to retail for $4.98 each. The stereo disk line-up includes new stereo recordings of some of the best-sellers from the Grand Award catalog, such as "Paul Whiteman—Hawaiian Magic," "The Roaring 20's," "The Flirty 30's," "Knuckles O'Toole," "Waltzes for Dancing," "Roman Spectacular," "The Alumni Orchestra Conducted by Bobby Byrne Plays The Great Song Hits of the Tommy & Jimmy Dorsey Orchestras," and "The Alumni Orchestra Conducted by Bobby Byrne Plays the Great Song Hits of the Glenn Miller Orchestra." All recording sessions for the past year and a half have been done in stereo so that now Grand Award has a substantial catalog from which to draw additional releases.

Light announced that Grand Award has been ready to release stereo disks for several months but held up because the company wanted to improve upon the common faults.

To illustrate the wide-spread interest in the stereo disk, on Light's recent trip to Europe he was told that the Society of German Recording Engineers would release stereo disks commencing in June.

How Much Is That D. J. In The Window?

NEW YORK—Times Square received some additional jump recently when WABC's Ed Jordan did his daily (3:00-4:00 PM) disk jockey show from the window of the Regal Shoe store on Broadway and 44th Street. The store windows were decked out with record album covers and pictures of the station's other disk jockeys, and one section of the window was converted into the tiniest studio this side of Lilliput. Ed's show came from the window until May 23.

NARAS Holds 1st Eastern Meeting

NEW YORK—The Eastern Branch of the National Association of Recording Arts And Sciences (NARAS) held its first open meeting last week at the Park Sheraton Hotel in this city. The purpose of the meeting was to inform music people of the objects of NARAS and to enlist new members.

In the absence of Guy Lombardo, president of the eastern branch of NARAS, Dave Kapp, vice president welcomed the many prominent music personalities in attendance. Lombardo's voice greeted the audience via a special tape recording.

Dave Kapp then introduced George Avakian, NARAS eastern secretary who presented an overall picture of the objects and goals of NARAS. The major object, Avakian revealed, was to offer awards for contributions in the record business similar to the awards given in the film, stage and TV fields. (The Oscar, Tony and Emmy Awards.) Avakian stated that NARAS has made arrangements for a network television presentation of the awards and that sponsors for this special telecast should be set by the end of the summer.

Avakian read a telegram from James Conkling, founder of the Academy and from Paul Weston, president of the west coast branch.

He went on to describe the two broad categories of membership the Academy will include: Active Members and Associate Members. Active members, who have a right to vote for the award winners, include vocalist and singers; leaders and conductors; artists and repertoire producers; songwriters and composers; engineers (mixers); instrumentalists and musicians; arrangers; art directors, photographers, artists, designers, literary editors and annotators; other—including spoken word, documentary, children's, educational, comedy, etc.

Associate memberships are open to all persons actively identified with the recording industry, but not in the creative phase. These members are not eligible to vote in the awards.

Dues for one year's membership (active or associate) is $15 per year. Life charter membership in both categories is $100 after which no dues are necessary for life. Dues, Avakian stated, are tax deductible.

Avakian went on to say that the board of directors of NARAS is only temporary and that in October, members would elect officers who would serve for one year.

Among the benefits available to members of NARAS are: use of an extensive record library which the Academy is planning to establish; use of a history of the record business from cylinder to stereo disks and tapes, which is now being formulated; a regular news letter, etc. Profits from the telecast will be used for these purposes as well as for establishing scholarships, improving the quality of recordings, running more meetings and defraying expenses resulting from running the NARAS.

After Avakian summarized the goals, the meeting was thrown open to questions from the floor.

One of the questions asked was about the categories for awards. Avakian answered that awards will be given in many categories, popular, classical, rock and roll, etc. He made it clear, however, that the category question is one that board members are currently analyzing.

It was obvious from the meeting that the Academy has a great many questions which it must answer before it shifts into high gear. But enthusiasm about the goals and purposes of the Academy was high.

Mercury Enters Stereo Disk Field

CHICAGO—Mercury Records last week announced its entry into the stereo disk field.

Included in the initial release will be seven popular and five classical albums. Selection of the first twelve packages was based on the sales achievement that each had accounted for, when they were previously merchandised as pre-recorded stereo-phonics tapes.

The highlight of the release will be a three-record, deluxe package, featuring Maria Meneghini Callas' interpretation of Cherubini's famed opera "Medea," recorded "live" at the La Scala opera house in Italy. Other numbers will feature albums by such notable artists as Paul Paray conducting the Detroit Symphony; Antal Dorati conducting the Minneapolis Symphony; Howard Hanson conducting the Eastman-Rochester Symphony; Patti Page; David Carroll; Sarah Vaughan and Billy Eckstine; Richard Hayman; Clebanoff and his Echoing Strings; Griff Williams and his Orchestra; and Dick Contino.

Irving B. Green, Mercury's President, indicated that an early July release was anticipated, and that production is currently being geared to handle the expected heavy consumer demand.

The popular and jazz releases in Mercury's new stereo record line will be designated as "verified stereo discs" and the classical releases will be known as "living presence stereo discs."

Ever conscious of the consumer's problems, Mercury will include in each album, as an aid to the neophyte stereo record buyer, a guide containing stereo information that will provide the listener with both a better understanding and more enjoyment of stereo sound. Mercury's practice of verifying the hi-fidelity recording facts of all of the company's products will be continued with the printing of record session data, including the equipment used in a special "Hi-Fi Facts" box on the back of each album. Each stereo long-play album will be clearly designated as "Stereo" by a brightly colored identification strip, located at the upper front section of the album cover, which will aid in eliminating confusion, both for the dealer and the consumer.

Mercury's stereo-disk sound was produced using a Westrex Cutter and the 45-45 system.

Lew Chudd To Europe

HOLLYWOOD—Imperial Records prexy Lew Chudd left for Europe last week where he will spend two weeks with foreign distributors in London, Hamburg, Milan, Zurich and Paris, setting releases and promotions on the label's artists for the rest of the year.

Chudd also indicated he may lay plans for Fats Domino's first European tour which European promoters have been asking about for the last five years.

Before he departed, Chudd set up three albums for June release: an Alfred Hitchcock album, a Ralph Flanagan, and a Bo Diddley album.

Challenge Issues Single From "Touch Of Evil" Album

HOLLYWOOD—As a result of heavy initial sales on its recently-acquired "Touch Of Evil" Universal-International film sound track album, Challenge Records has stepped up its promotional campaign on the album with the release of a single from the set, "Main Title," coupled with "Rock Me To Sleep," it was announced by Johnny Thompson, the label's general manager. Promotional copies of the single were rushed to the nation's deejays over the weekend.

"Touch Of Evil," starring Charlton Heston, Janet Leigh and Orson Welles, has its setting in a modern Mexican border town. Consequently, Henry Mancini, who wrote the music, accented the score with a mixture of Latin jazz and up-to-date rock and roll. Joseph Gershenson conducted the U-I studio orchestra.

New Postal Law Benefits Music World

NEW YORK—Churches, schools, private music teachers, performing artists, orchestras, and composers will be benefited by the provisions pertaining to sheet music in the postal rate law signed last week (May 27) by President Eisenhower. Leonard Feist, Executive Director of the Music Postage Committee, estimates that the musical world will save at least $500,000 a year through the reduction in postal rates for all sheet music and music manuscripts; this reduction is established by the provisions of the new law which allows sheet music to be sent through the mail at book rate rather than at the zoned parcel post rates presently in effect. The new law will go into effect on August 1.

The enactment of the new law is the culmination of a campaign begun in mid-1953 by Feist, then President of the Music Publishers' Association of the United States, Inc. At that time, sheet music alone of all educational, cultural, and informational publications was granted no special postal rates. Although books, magazines, and newspapers always had enjoyed postal advantages, sheet music was treated as merchandise, even though books of music were granted the book rate in the mails. It was an anomalous fact that a bound book of music could be sent at special rates whereas the identical musical contents in separate sheet form were charged much higher rates.

In order to bring this inequity to the attention of the government, the Music Postage Committee was established with Leonard Feist as Executive Director. Feist is Administrative Vice-President of Associated Music Publishers, Inc., subsidiary of BMI. The original membership of the committee consisted of Robert A. Choate, President, Music Educators National Conference; S. Lewis Elmer, President, American Guild of Organists; Howard Hanson, President, National Music Council; Karl O. Kuersteiner, President, Music Teachers National Association; Mrs. Ada Holding Miller, President, National Federation of Music Clubs; Very Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Quigley, President, National Catholic Music Educators Association. Subsequently, as new presidents of the organizations included were elected, they replaced their predecessors on the committee: Mrs. Ronald A. Dougan for the National Federation of Music Clubs; William B. McBride for the Music Educators National Conference; The Reverend Cletus P. Madsen for the National Catholic Music Educators Association.

Early in 1955, bills to reduce postage on sheet music to book rate were introduced in both Houses of Congress, and when a new Congress convened in 1957, the principle of an adjustment of postal rates on sheet music was so well established through the five years of activity of the Music Postage Committee that provisions authorizing book rate for sheet music were included in the new postal rate law.

3 European Jazz Musicians Join Goodman In Brussels

BRUSSELS — Three European jazz musicians were singled out by Benny Goodman to play with his band in his concerts at the Brussels World's Fair, which were presented and produced May 25-31 as a public service by the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company.

The musicians are: Horst Jankowski, 22, of Stuttgart; Berra Rabe, 31, also of Stuttgart; and Hans Kohler of Frankfurt. Jankowski, a pianist, and Rabe, a saxophonist, appeared with Goodman at his first concert at the Fair, Sunday, May 25th. Kohler, a saxophonist, joined the Goodman group May 28th.

All three musicians are top-rated in Germany and were recommended to Goodman by arranger Bobby Ghathescha. Goodman invited the three to appear in Brussels to give a further international touch to his appearances at the Brussels Fair.

Young Jankowski summed up the attitude of the European musicians when he said: "I believe we are the envy of all European musicians. This is the greatest thrill I have had, and I would have been happy to come to Brussels to play with Goodman for nothing."

They will be heard with the Goodman band in the American Broadcasts on the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company stations.

The Westinghouse radio-tv division has announced a special "Benny Goodman Plays World Favorites Hi-Fi" package, a $1.39 12 inch LP to be made available to purchasers at Westinghouse dealers. The disk spotlights the ten numbers Goodman has received the most requests for all over the globe.

Tom Rockwell Dies

NEW YORK — Tom Rockwell, Chairman of the Board of General Artists Corporation, died last week (May 29) of an infected pancreas, at St. Vincent's Hospital in New York. He would have been 57 years old come July 7th.

His funeral was held at the Church of the Resurrection Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

A veteran of the entertainment business, Rockwell began his career in the field as a salesman for Columbia Records on the west coast back in 1922. In 1926 he came east to become general manager of Okeh Phonograph Records, a Columbia affiliate.

In 1930, with Jack Kapp, he headed the Brunswick label during which time the Mills Brothers made their debut as recording artists. The Mills Brothers were Rockwell's first venture into the management field. Under his tutelage they rose to fame as one of the top vocal groups in the nation.

Later Rockwell was associated with Cork O'Keefe in a management operation called Rockwell-O'Keefe. O'Keefe sold his interest to Rockwell in the 30's and in 1939, Rockwell formed what is now GAC. He was president of GAC until last year when he was named Chairman of the Board. At that time Larry Kanaga was named president of GAC.

Rockwell is survived by his wife, Vivian and his two children, Malcolm and Alice.

Sherkow Stresses Stereo

MILWAUKEE — Vernon A. Sherkow, president of Sherco Distributors, this city, in an interview, described the nature of his business very descriptively, when he stated, "I'm no journalism major, but I have a story to tell regarding stereophonic tapes and records—and the future of this exciting reproduction of sound."

Sherkow continued on to say, "my real specialty is tape, specifically stereo tape; and, I believe that the twenty lines I carry give me the greatest representative line of any distributor in this area." Sherkow stressed the fact that as stereo record producers come out with their disk lines, his firm will stock them, maintaining the character of a specialist in stereo distribution.

Sherkow stated, "as a specialist in stereo I have been asked what the advent of the stereo disk will do to stereo tape. I fervently believe that they must enhance each other." He continued, "obviously the price structure on stereo disks will attract the mass buyer; however, as time progresses, the mass buyer, who has been educated to appreciate high fidelity and more recently—to stereo, will want high fidelity stereo. In which case he must go to tape."

"The most interesting part of this activity from a business view point," he added, "is that stereo has two attractions. One, the startling sound; and, two, the completely unsaturated market. The record dealer who waits for stereo to hit the 'Top Fifty' sheet is in the same position as the dealer who didn't believe that 45's would be a definite factor on the market."

Sherkow continued very pointedly when he said, "the record dealer is the natural source for dispensation of this merchandise; however, if he continues to stall and fumble, more and more hi fi and photography shops will pick up the ball and get the profit."

In conclusion Sherkow said, "We can rest assured of the fact that stereo tape and disks will be a vital factor in next fall's merchandising scheme."

R & B Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Am-Par subsid, APT, bows this week with the release of four records. The new entry makes its pitch with four rock and roll waxings featuring Bobby Hamilton singing "Crazy Eyes For You" and "While Walking Together"; The Elegants with "Little Star" and "Getting Dizzy"; The Stereophonics offering "Love Is So Wonderful"; and The Cavaliers blending on "Dance, Dance, Dance." This is a company to be watched since it will be handled by that successful Sam Clark-Larry Newton team. . . . Walter Hayum, National Sales Manager Epic Records, reports Epic swinging along in skipping fashion with three hot items in Roy Hamilton's "Lips"; Frankie Vaughan's "Judy"; and Jimmy Breedlove's "This Too Shall Pass Away". The latter is selling particularly good on the West Coast. Walt also advises that Lester Lanin, who is one of the hottest LP properties around, has now cracked the West Coast wide open. This was one area that Lanin sold in only fair quantities until now. . . . Jerry Shifrin, Roulette national sales manager calls Roulette "just about the hottest label around." Shifrin calls attention to "Secretly" by Jimmy Rodgers; "When The Boys Talk About The Girls", Valerie Carr; "Don't Go Home", The Playmates; "Cha-Hua-Hua", Hugo & Luigi; and "Bikini" by The Bikinis. "And on top of that," says Jerry, "we've now come out with three hot offerings. Sonny Till's "Shy"; Austin Cramer's "I Think Of You"; and Leslie Uggams' "Ice Cream Man" and "I'm Not Old Enough". "That's only the singles," continues Shifrin. "We're just as hot in the LP department." . . . Joe Saccone (WMGM-New York) librarian, was married last Saturday, May 31, and had all his rival station friends as well as song pluggers stand up for him. Joe Petralia, formerly of WOV, and now promotion man for Columbia Distributors, was the best man. Petralia's pretty wife Rose, was matron of honor. Joe Grippo, demon salesman-promotion man at Portem Distributors, and Frank Mancini, his counterpart at Mercury, were ushers, and Jody Cameron, WMGM librarian (Saccone's assistant), was bridesmaid. His trade friends also did the bachelor bit at the Club Safari, College Point, L. I. About fifty song pluggers and fellow deejays and librarians pulled the surprise on Saccone last Tuesday, May 27. . . . Atco and Atlantic Records continues to get hotter by the day.

STEREOPHONICS

Atco has another national smash in The Coasters' "Yakety Yak" and a torrid prospect in Bobby Darin's "Splish Splash". The former having shot into #25 on The Top Sixty and "Splish" getting a wonderful initial reaction. Atlantic supplying anxious dstris with the Chuck Willis two-sider, "What Am I Living For" and "Hang Up My Rock and Roll Shoes"; Betty Johnson's "Dream"; The Drifters' "Moonlight Bay"; and Joe Turner's "I'm Gonna Jump For Joy." . . . Bobby Robinson has a fast hitting item in his new "Oh Gee, Oh Gosh" by The Kodoks. Only on the air about a week or ten days and the wax is being reported saleswise locally. . . . Lew Krefetz, Poplar Records, coming out with "The Stash" by Jesse Stone. It's an exciting instrumental for which both Lew and Jesse have high hopes. Stone just finished directing a session for The Clovers and Krefetz will have it in the hands of his dstris in about ten days.

. . . Bill Doggett out with a new King disk, "Blip Blop" and "Tanya." . . . Julie Rifkind, Dome Records, reports that one of the label's two initial releases is already showing strong signs of happening in the New York area. Rifkind points at The Kents' "Happy Beat" and says "watch it." . . . Celestial Records, Seattle, Washington, bows with two etchings. Joe Boot, who was formerly with the Little Richard troupe for nearly three years and now working with the Fabulous Winds, bows with "That's Tough" and "Rock And Roll Radio". The other is by Marge Whaley, currently living and entertaining in Honolulu, Hawaii. Marge's two sides have been released from her current Celestial Stereophonic Tape Album. They are "Marge's Monday Boogie" and "Wabash Blues". . . . Mort Shuman and Doc Pomus, RnB Records, report that The Crowns' "Kiss and Make Up" is still doing very well in the Boston, Providence, and Pittsburgh areas. Doc has another reason to feel happy. His wife has just presented him with an eight pound five ounce baby girl, Sharon Ruth. . . . Elliot Blaine, Cosnat's Distr. Corp., reports the outfit's top local sellers are "Do You Want To Dance", Bobby Freeman, Josie; "Jennie Lee" by Jan & Arnie on Arwin; and "You" by the Aquatones on Fargo. Coming up strong are "Dormi, Dormi, Dormi" by Don Rondo on Jubilee and "Rock To The Philadelphia" by The Steadies on Josie. . . . Bill Perkins (WTMP-Tampa-St. Petersburg, Fla.) says tell the trade this is my new address. Perkins was formerly with WCIN-Cincinnati, O. and wants his friends to contact him in Florida. . . . (Dandy) Randy W. Warren, who for three years enjoyed a big following with KCOH-Houston, Texas, is now working out of KXLW-St. Louis, Mo. Randy wants us to remind record companies and distributors of this change. He will also welcome sound tracks from all artists. . . . Hy Weiss, Old Town Records, happily reports "Woe Woe Is Me" by Bob Gaddy, is now spreading through the entire south from its hit area,

LARRY WILLIAMS

New Orleans. And, his long standing hot seller, "We Belong Together" by Robert and Johnny, is still breaking out in new territories. It is now taking over that big Texas area. . . . Larry Williams, Specialty, introduces a hit possibility this week in "Hootchy Koo". . . . "Froggy", who makes his debut on Ensign's "River Rock", came by his unusual styling the hard way. He was the victim of a serious voice affliction as a child and several years and several operations later he began singing with gospel groups near his native Humboldt, Tenn. home.

George Goldner finished a busy week picking Boston master "Maybe You'll Be Mine" and "Cool Cool Baby" by Connie & Lee. George took it over from Look Records. It had been showing strong New England action. He also closed a deal with Klick for national distribution of its "Poor Rock and Roll" by The Nobles. This one was breaking in Connecticut. On his own label George is hitting with The Chantells' "I Love You So", a "Sure Shot" this week and great expectations with his new Dubs "Be Sure (My Love)". . . . Duke Niles' secretary so in love with his after shave lotion she uses it instead of perfume. . . . Harry Finfer, Jamie Records, screaming superlatives as he tells of his "Rebel Rouser" by Duane Eddy breaking out in runaway figures. Goldner also has national distribution on this one.

CHICAGO:

Sig Sakowicz' Mothers' Fan Club surprised him with a big shindig, May 21. Lovely Camelia House star Sheila Reynolds and other celebs were among the guests who feted Sig. . . . We caught a terrific 'rockin' & swingin' quartet at the far west Chevrons Club last week. The group is lead by a really gone vibe player. He is backed by a clever bass guitarist, bass, and drums. The leader goes by the monicker Sir John. . . . Vee Jay-Falcon's Abner tells us that the new Gene Allison disk has been released and looks like a big one. Jimmy Reed's session is over and the wax is in the can, for immediate release. . . . The Dells are on stage at the Royal Theater in Baltimore. Their new deck on Vee-Jay was recently introduced by deejay Hot Rod Hu'bert of WITH, Baltimore. . . . Radio exec Sam Fishbein tells us that he's prepping a deejay syndicated package deal for radio stations to be merchandised nationally. Bob Wencel, manager of WBEE, this city, is assisting on distribution. . . . Harry Glenn, prexy of Mar-Vel Records reports that rockin' stars Jack Bradshaw and The Morgan Sisters were recently in session and their new releases are being distributed. Glenn says that this is the first release for Bradshaw since 1955. . . . Irv Kupcinet tells us that this year's Purple Heart Cruise, an outing for disabled vets which is Kup's pet project, promises to be the biggest since Kup first initiated it years ago. The record industry is always high on the donation list for this affair, according to Kup. . . . All-State's Mike Oury tells us that the distrib has so many hits on the fire that he doesn't know where to begin. . . . Tommy "Madman" Jones really had the McKie Fitzhugh Lounge jumpin' with his wailin' and rockin' t'other evening. Tommy got his big thrill when he read the review of his new waxing in The Cash Box. . . . Deejay Howard Miller, WIND and WNBQ, got a big kick out of seeing his pic on the cover of a recent issue of The Cash Box. Howard is currently readying his plush boat for a much needed vacation up in the north country. . . . United Distrib's Jerry Ferber recently underwent major surgery. It seems you can't keep a record promo man down, and we're happy to say that Jerry is beginning to mend. . . . Watch for Jan and Joe!

JIMMY REED

LOS ANGELES:

Little Willie John's "Talk To Me, Talk To Me" beginning to show on the Pop charts after heading up the R & B listings. . . . Milt Wiess of Milton Phono Records predicts Dooto Records has a big hit with the Cufflinks new release of "Lawful Wedding". . . . Billy Ward and his group concentrating on doing benefits at Veteran's Hospitals in the areas in which he is appearing. Now appearing in Reno, the group then plays the San Francisco Bay area before going to Bolero's in Wildwood, N. J. for a June 26th opening. . . . The Champs riding high with their new hit "El Rancho Rock" which is moving as fast as their first Challenge release of "Tequila". . . . Scalp 'Um Jockey

CHICAGO, ILL. — WAIT-Chicago deejay, Stan Dale, defends himself from the squaw who's all set to scalp him. The action took place in the window of Jack Howard's Record Shop in the 'Windy City' in which the gal was plugging the Apache's Greenwich slicing of "Apache."

New Package Plan For Radio Stations

NEW YORK—Ray Meinberg, national promotion head of Design LP's and singles and Cricket Kiddie Records, has set up a LP package plan for radio stations.

A catalogue of all Design LP's together with a letter explaining the plan and the price of the service, was sent to the program directors of all radio stations. Meinberg said—"The reaction to the plan was far above our highest expectations. I believe, the great reaction had a lot to do with the fact that the program directors were allowed to pick the LP's they wanted, and not what we wanted to ship them."

A follow up to the plan includes a bulletin to the program directors subscribing to the service, informing them of the newest Design LP releases.

Meinberg is excited about the reaction to Design's two new singles, "Presents" by Julie Joyce and "The Howl" by Johnny Eager.

"Sweet And Lovely"

NEW YORK—Jose Melis, popular orchestra leader and musical director of NBC's "Tonight" show, attended the Premiere of 20th. Century-Fox's production of John O'Hara's "10 North Frederick" at the Paramount theatre last Thursday evening.

Jose has recorded the theme song from the pic "Sweet and Lovely" on the Seeco label, and is nightly plugging his connection with the Gary Cooper, Suzy Parker film.

Jose is shown here with the former Miss Denmark lovely, Greta Thyssen.

"Bewildering" Harry

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Posing prettily for the people are Vik's Mickey and Sylvia and St. Louis deejay, Harry Fender. The duo dropped in on Harry during a recent St. Louis trip to promote their latest Vik pressing "Bewildered". The tune, incidentally, is starting to show signs of developing into their biggest click since "Love Is Strange."

BMI Awards Annual Student Prizes

NEW YORK—Prizes totaling $11,750 have been awarded to 11 young American composers in the 6th annual Student Composers Radio Awards (SCRA) it was announced last week by Carl Haverlin, National SCRA Chairman and president of Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI), sponsor of the competition.

A top cash award of $2,000 was made to Ramiro Cortes, 24, of Los Angeles, now studying in Italy on a Fulbright Grant, for his multiple entry, "Chamber Concerto No. 1" and "A Nocturnal Upon Saint Lucie's Day." A prize of $1,500 was awarded to William Bayard Carlin, 30, of Princeton, N. J., now studying privately with Roger Sessions, for his String Quartet 1953. A recommendation by the SCRA Judging Panel that the "Carlin Quartet" be awarded the additional $500 WQXR String Quartet Prize has been accepted by Elliott M. Sanger, Executive Vice-President of the New York radio station. In addition to the cash award, the work will receive a premiere performance by the WQXR String Quartet. Michael Kassler, 17, of Maple Shade, New Jersey, now studying at Harvard University, was awarded $1,500 for his multiple entry, "String Quartet No. 3," "Sea Poems for Chorus and Instruments," and "Songs of the Civil War."

The permanent SCRA judging panel is made up of William Schuman, President, Julliard School of Music; Earl V. Moore, Dean, School of Music, University of Michigan; Claude Champagne, Assistant Director of the Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art of the Province of Quebec, Canada; and Henry Cowell, composer and Adjunct Professor of Music at Columbia University.

Other judges in the 1957 competition were Alfredo Antonini, conductor; William Bergsma, composer, and teacher at Julliard; Abram Chasins, composer and Musical Director, Radio Station WQXR; Norman Dello Jolo, composer; Felix Greissle, Director of Publications, E. B. Marks Music Corporation; Walter Hinrichson, President, C. F. Peters Corporation; Charles Jones, composer; Ulysses Kay, composer; Earl Kim, composer; Colin McPhee, composer; Boyd Neel, Dean, Royal Conservatory of Music, University of Toronto; Vincent Persichetti, composer and Editor, Elkan-Vogel Company; Daniel Pinkham, composer and harpsichordist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra; Wal-lingford Riegger, composer; Roger Sessions, composer and Professor of Music, Princeton University; and Carlos Surinach, composer and conductor.

All entries were submitted to the judges under pseudonyms and, in cases where the judges might have recognized the work of their own students, they refrained from voting on the merits of these works.

The opening of SCRA 1958 will be announced shortly. Inquiries concerning official rules and entry blanks can be obtained by writing to Russell Sanjek, Director, SCRA Project, Broadcast Music, Inc., 589 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

BUBBI HOAG

(Willow 1002)

B+ "OOH-BEE-DOOH" (2:40) [Walnut BMI—Crumidy, Martin] Hoag sings another slow pretty that comes off the stronger deck. Tune has a folky quality and Hoag's treatment is restrained but compelling. Deck has a lot to it and should be watched carefully.

B "YOU'RE ONLY YOUNG ONCE" (2:25) [Aries ASCAP—George Weiss] Bubbi Hoag sings a soft slow beat ballad impressively. His tenderness gives the offering a quality that appeals. Teeners may be moved by this pretty.

SHIRLEY GUNTER

(Tender 511)

B "BELIEVE ME" (1:45) [Rikpage BMI—Motola, Winn] Shirley Gunter, one of r & b's favorites for many years, sings a straight pop pretty with effective delivery. Moving offering.

B "CRAZY LITTLE BABY" (2:15) [Rikpage / Bregmark BMI—Motola] Miss Gunter swings over to the current teener type material. This is pop-r & b wax with the chantress belting in easy fashion. She sings it with a quality that appeals.

MARGE WHALEY

(Celestial 110)

C+ "MARGE'S MONDAY BOOGIE" (2:42) [Grosvenor House ASCAP—Marge Whaley] Marge Whaley swings out with a lively boogie item showcasing the runaway keyboard. Exciting piano offering.

C+ "WABASH BLUES" (1:53) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Meinken, Ringle] The talented lass does a honkey tonk treatment of a quick beat blues for the pop market. Straight treatment done well.

JOE BOOT

(Celestial 111)

B+ "ROCK AND ROLL RADIO" (2:04) [Star Tunes BMI—Boot, Standifer] Joe Boot wails a middle beat r & r ditty with a solid vocal treatment. Enjoyable jump wax that should find a good sized audience. Boot may have come up with something that could stir up some action.

B "THAT'S TOUGH" (2:24) [Star Tunes BMI—Boot, Standifer] Boot backs with a middle beat jumper and his energetic chanting of the airy ditty makes it a strong backer-upper.

THE EDSLS

(Dub 2843)

B "BELLS" (2:04) [Jimbo BMI—G. Jones, Jr.] The Edsels team softly on a slow beat drifter ballad for an easy to absorb deck. Delicately fashioned, it is however, in the r & r idiom and could attract both the younger and more mature teeners.

C+ "LAMA RAMA DING DONG" (2:20) [Jimbo BMI—G. Jones, Jr.] The Edsels turn to the quick beat jump on the flip, and it is a well done side, but one that has been done many times already.

The Cash Box Award o' the Week

"OP" (2:10) [Springton ASCAP—Margie Fisher]

"VISION OF YOU" (2:25) [Alstel Music BMI—Cicalease, Cast]

THE HONEYCONES (Ember 1036)

● Ember has picked up another Philadelphia master that has the novelty qualities that may carry it along the path of Ember's other Philly buy, "Get A Job". This offering, "Op", is a quick beat effort with a pig-latin lyric that the kids are so hip to. Item has already stirred up some action where it originated, Philly, and is therefore one to be watched carefully. Weird lyric, wild enough to have what it takes. The coupling, "Vision Of You", is a middle beat teener beat that will be the necessary dance side. Very pretty, and by all standards should be the side to be watched, but the novelty effect will kick "Op" off. "Vision" may be what the kids will listen to when they've tired of "Op".

"YOUR FUNERAL AND MY TRIAL" (2:38) [Arc BMI—Williamson]

"WAKE UP, BABY" (2:40) [Arc BMI—Williamson]

SONNY BOY WILLIAMSON (Checker 894)

● Sonny Boy Williamson, in a slow rhythmic blues, "Your Funeral And My Trial", warns his gal to believe him when he tells her to treat him better—or else. Pretty drastic measures are promised by Williamson but obviously not too heady for the r & b buyer since we are already getting sales reports. Williamson tells his story effectively so watch it. The flip, "Wake Up, Wake Up", is a middle beat blues bouncer that Williamson gives an excellent vocal job. Top drawer effort that strengthens the release. Two good decks, with a slight lilt in the direction of "Your Funeral".

"HOOTCHY-KOO" (2:30) [Venice BMI—L. Williams]

"THE DUMMY" (1:56) [Venice BMI—L. Williams]

LARRY WILLIAMS (Specialty 634)

● Larry Williams, the man who invented "Boney Moroni", has another powerful hunk of material in his newest, "Hootchy-Koo", a slow, rhythmic jumper. Lyric, Williams, and the instrumental support combine to make it a powerful entry that could be another big hit for the wailer. Watch it carefully for signs of action. The flip, "The Dummy", is a quick beat jumper with a wild overall effect. Knock-out dance tempo for the power packed kids, but for the selling side it'll be "Hootchy-Koo".

"FOOL'S PARADISE" (2:40)

[Nor Va Jak BMI—LeClaire, Petty, Linsley]

"THINK IT OVER" (2:40)

[Cedarwood BMI—Holly, Petty, Allison]

THE CRICKETS

(Brunswick 55072)

● The Crickets are out with a double sided contender. See pop reviews.

GUITAR GABLE

(Excello 2140)

B+ "WALKING IN THE PARK" (2:14) [Excellorec BMI—Miller, Joliette] Guitar Gable, with King Karl handling the vocal, turns in a quick beat ditty based on the teenage beat and novelty lyric. Karl swings in forcefully and the youngsters could pick it up in quantity. Watch it.

B "HAVE MERCY ON ME" (2:59) [Excellorec BMI—Miller, Joliette] Gable and Karl team again for a slow rhythmic down home blues. Karl tells his story with sincerity. Ok blues deck.

JIMMY McCRACKLIN

(Peacock 1683)

B+ "THE SWINGING THING" (2:40) [Lion BMI—J. McCracklin] Jimmy McCracklin puts down a slow, but swinging instrumental beat that should attract lots of attention to his Peacock release. McCracklin is strong here and this deck should be watched.

B "I NEED YOUR LOVING" (2:34) [Lion BMI—J. McCracklin] McCracklin wails a slow beat down home blues with an authentic treatment. Should find the southern markets receptive. Ok deck.

DUKE MITCHELL

(Aladdin 3427)

B+ "CHOLO JOE" (1:55) [Glenn B+ ASCAP—Robin, Willing] Duke Mitchell performs a slow rhythmic jump instrumental with a vocal that is secondary. It is in the pattern of some of today's hits. Effectively done and should capture good airtime.

B "I LOVE YOU MUCH TOO MUCH" (2:00) [Leeds ASCAP—A. Olshey, C. Towber, D. Raye] Duke Mitchell performs the standard with strong dramatic delivery. Nostalgic and pleasing. Straight pop delivery.

THE DE VILLES

(Aladdin 3432)

B "DO WOP" (2:15) [Pirouette/Aladdin BMI—Tate, Gibson] The De Villes bounce effortlessly through an engaging jump of medium tempo. Deck has a swingy lilt and stirring beat that should appeal to the teenage traffic.

B "KISS ME AGAIN AND AGAIN" (2:26) [Pirouette/Aladdin BMI—Tate, Gibson, Bledsoe] The De Villes drift on a lazy slow beat tempo as they tell the romantic story. Easy on the nerves deck.

BOBBY MITCHELL

(Imperial 1260)

B+ "64 HOURS" (2:42) [Travis BMI—Bartholomew, Mitchell] Bobby Mitchell wails a slow beat down home blues pleading with his gal to come home. Mitchell has that quality that comes through in his story telling. Good r & b wax that can hit in most markets.

B+ "I LOVE TO HOLD YOU" (2:03) [Travis BMI—Bartholomew, Mitchell] Mitchell swings easy on a slow rhythmic love jump. Mitchell is strong on this melodic deck that can appeal to all. Two strong decks offered here.

LITTLE RAY CAMPBELL

(Goldband 1064)

B "WHY WHY WHY" (2:30) [Golden States BMI—Shuler, Campbell] Little Ray Campbell shouts out a melodic quick beat blues with energy. Good teenage backing aids Campbell to get his message across. Deck rides high and hard. Ok swinger.

B "I'M ALL ALONE" (2:56) [Golden States BMI—Shuler, Campbell] Campbell sings a slow beat blues with emotion. His baby left him and he has no one to call his own. Wailing his story with feeling, Campbell turns in a performance that should appeal to his southern audience.

OSCAR McLOLLIE/
JENNETTE BAKER

(Class 228)

B+ "HEY GIRL—HEY BOY" (2:25) [Recordo BMI—Thomas, McLollie] Oscar McLollie and Jennette Baker team vocally against the Googie Rene band and come up with a cute quick beat bouncer aimed at all fields. Treatment is catchy and happy. Light hearted wax to be watched.

B "LET ME KNOW LET ME KNOW" (2:30) [Recordo BMI—McLollie] McLollie is soloist on the flip. A quick beat jump is delivered by McLollie with novelty effect. It is another light and fluffy deck that is good—but not as strong as "Hey Girl—Hey Boy."

International Band Set For Newport

NEW YORK — A jazz band consisting of jazz musicians from each of 17 countries will make its appearance at the Newport Jazz Festival, skedded for July 3rd through the 6th at Newport, R.I.

"It's the most exciting jazz project of all time," said Louis L. Lorillard, president of the Newport Jazz Festival, the non-profit organization which has organized the musical aggregation and is sponsoring its appearance at Newport this year. "Most of the members of the band, which has an average age of 23, can't even understand each other's language, but music is proving to be a universal medium of communicating between them . . . as it should for people everywhere."

Two members of the Festival's Board of Directors, George Wein and Marshall Brown, recently completed a tour of the continent during which they auditioned hundreds of musicians in various countries.

The players who were selected will all meet in Paris and fly to the United States about June 15th. They'll rehearse for two weeks under the direction of bandmaster Marshall Brown, probably visit the nation's capital to meet President Eisenhower, then head for Newport and the scene of their sole performance.

Special permission had to be obtained from James C. Petrillo, head of the musician's union, to allow the performers to play in the U.S. at Newport. "We hope to send the International Youth Band to play at the Brussels World's Fair," notes Lorillard, "and we are now trying to line up a sponsoring company so the group can then go on to play at the U.S. Trade Fair in Moscow."

Among those already chosen for the band are: Zdenek Pulec, Czechoslovakia, trombone; Jan Wroblewski, Poland, tenor saxophone; Dusko Gojkovic of Yugoslavia, trumpet; Hans Salomon of Austria, alto saxophone; Palle Bolvig of Denmark, trumpet; Christian Kellens, Belgium, trombone; Rudolf Jacobs, Holland, bass; Wladimiro Bas Fabache, Spain, alto saxophone; Jose Magalhais, Portugal, trumpet; George Gruntz, Switzerland, piano; Albert Mangelsdorff, Germany, trombone; Bernt Rosen-gren, Sweden, tenor sax; Gilberto Cuppini, Italy, drums; Gabor Szobo, Hungary, guitar; Roger Guerin, France, trumpet; Ronnie Ross, England, baritone saxophone; and Andy Marsala, 15-year-old American saxophone player.

Previn Cuts "Gigi" Jazz LP

HOLLYWOOD — Andre Previn & His Pals (Shelly Manne & Red Mitchell) have just recorded a modern jazz version of the score of MGM's hit motion picture, "Gigi." This is a follow-up to their current best-selling jazz album, "Pal Joey." Previn conducted the music for the film.

In addition to his jazz interests, Previn is a distinguished film composer and conductor. He recently won the first annual Screen Composers' Association award presented to him on the Rosemary Clooney coast-to-coast CBS TV show, May 15. And at a subsequent banquet tendered in his honor by the Association "for the year's outstanding contribution to the art of scoring motion pictures," the award specifically mentioned Previn's original ballet composed for the Gene Kelly film, "Invitation to the Dance."

#13 For "Rock Around Clock"

PHILADELPHIA — The rock and roll "standard," "Rock Around The Clock" will be heard in its 13th film when it appears in the MGM flick "The Reluctant Debutante."

The song, which MGM effectively employed in "Blackboard Jungle," has a catalogue of over one hundred recordings in over twenty languages, and its Bill Haley version has a world wide sale of over eight million, according to James E. Myers, publisher of the song.

Skinner and his manager Lou Epstein, who operate the park, attribute the solid turnout to be an indication of renewed interest in country entertainment.

D MEDIOCRE

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

MOON MULLICAN
(Coral 16994)

B+ "JENNY LEE" (2:00) [Daywin BMI—A. Ginsburg, J. Berry] The current pop, r&b smash gets the c&w-rock 'n roll and fiddlin' treatment from Moon Mullican—with an able assist from the Anita Kerr Singers. Tho too late for pop-r&r honors it could bust wide open in the country-rock dept.

B "THAT'S ME" (2:19) [Coaxial BMI—M. Mullican] Under side is a self-penned, up tempo romantic cutie that Mullican, along with the Kerr group, etches in light-hearted style. Should catch a heap of spins.

JOE HUDGINS
(Robbins 1005)

B+ "WHERE'D YOU STAY LAST NIGHT" (2:30) [Be-Are BMI—J. Hudgins] Joe Hudgins bows on the Robbins label with a fetching, steady-driving opus that the jocks are gonna give many a-whirl. The warbler's kinda upset 'cause his gal's been out all nite. Flavorful instrumental back-drop.

B "I'M SORRY FOR YOU" (2:43) [Be-Are BMI—J. Hudgins] Here Hudgins takes hold of a moderate paced, crying towel love affair and puts it across in effective style. Good country item.

ABE MULKEY
(Tally 122)

B "LOVIN' YOU IS MY BUSINESS" (2:10) [Lu-Tal BMI—A. Mulkey] Abe Mulkey sings right from the heart as he claims that his love for the gal is 100% pure and will always remain so. A moderate paced affair that the country platter spinners are sure to take a liking to.

B "PACKED UP AND SHOVED OFF" (2:10) [Lu-Tal BMI—A. Mulkey] Under half, is an up tempo romantic weeper on which Mulkey sadly reflects that his sweetie has run out on him. Two good showings.

DON RENO & RED SMILEY
(Dot 15760)

B+ "ONE MORE HILL" (2:18) [Warden BMI—G. Walker, G. Wilson] No matter how successful one may be—there's still the hill of judgement to climb. So say Don Reno & Red Smiley on this inspiring, religious-flavored lilter. Beautiful performance. Could capture a large portion of the country market.

C+ "BANJO MEDLEY" (2:09) [Galatin BMI—D. Reno] Flipside is strictly instrumental as Reno, Smiley and the Tennessee Cut-Ups pick out a quick paced medley of old-time delighers to a fare-thee-well.

JOHNNY BUSH
(Allstar 7166)

C+ "IN MY WORLD ALL ALONE" (2:31) [Allstar BMI—E. Dover, D. James] Attractively showcased by Bill Freeman and his Texas Plainsmen on the instrumental portion, Johnny Bush handles the vocal reins as he feelingfully bounces over a quick paced tear-jerker.

C+ "YOU'VE SAID THAT BEFORE" (2:35) [Allstar BMI—Clubb, Sprague, Hamilton] Here Bush projects with the utmost sincerity as he softly spins a tender, moderate paced romantic weeper. The Freeman crew back up in soft, subdued string style.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"I DIG YOU BABY" (1:45)

[Geronimo BMI—M. Rainwater, B. Stevenson]

"MOANIN' THE BLUES" (2:03) [Acuff-Rose BMI—H. Williams]

MARVIN RAINWATER (MGM 12665)

MARVIN RAINWATER

● Marvin Rainwater, now an international star as a result of his fantastic success in England (his

"Whole Lotta Woman" reaching the #1 slot over there as well as riding high on the country charts over here) comes thru with another tremendous pairing that means money in the bank for all concerned. On the topside Marv delightfully multiple-voices a captivating, gimmicked-up, all-market novelty rocker labeled "I Dig You Baby". Looks like a smash from every angle. On the flip half the chanter demonstrates his top calibre vocal-yodel style as he polishes off a wonderful fast-paced revival of the Hank Williams favorite, "Moanin' The Blues". Sensational, pop-styled vocal and musical assist on both lids.

"I CAN'T HELP WONDERING" (2:08) [Cedarwood BMI—M. Tillis]

"JEALOUSY" (2:25) [Cedarwood BMI—J. Anglin]

KITTY WELLS (Decca 30662)

KITTY WELLS

● Kitty Wells steps into the wax spotlight once again as she follows her current clicker, "I Can't Stop Loving You", with two more powerful bids for hitdom. And both ends have that 'big hit' sign notched into every groove of the disk. The thrush is at her vocal best as she penetratingly renders two heartfelt echo-chambered romantic themes labeled "I Can't Help Wondering" and "Jealousy". Top end moves along at an up tempo pace while the under deck falls into the moderate beat category. Looks like two king-sized hits, back-to-back. And they're both tailor-made for any country deejay's program schedule.

"ALONE WITH YOU" (1:55)

[Lanchester BMI—Drusky, Vanadore, Young]

"EVERY TIME I'M KISSING YOU" (2:15)

[Four Star BMI—F. Young, C. Belew]

FARON YOUNG (Capitol 3982)

FARON YOUNG

● Faron Young, whose past few releases have been slanted heavily towards the pop mart, returns to the 'pure country' fold on his newest Capitol pairing and chances are his name'll be back up on the country hit listings in the weeks to come. The smooth-toned songster combines a ballad with a beat on the coupling and he handles 'em both in equally effective fashion. The beat side is an inviting romantic item tagged "Alone With You" while the ballad is a heart rending, moderate-paced love affair dubbed "Everytime I'm Kissing You." Great double-decker for the large Young following. It's a toss-up.

"I THINK OF YOU" (2:30) [Knox BMI—Grayzell]

RUDY GRAYZELL (Sun 290)

● A striking ballad that could turn into a 'hot' item for both the country and pop marts is served up by Sun's Rudy Grayzell. (See Pop Reviews).

McCORMICK BROTHERS
(Hickory 1080)

B+ "BIG EYES" (1:55) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B.&F. Bryant] The McCormick Brothers come up with their strongest pairing to date. This side the group refreshingly romps over a driving, happy-go-lucky novelty. Enticing ditty that could step way out.

B+ "BLUE BLUE MOOD" (2:23) [Acuff-Rose BMI—R.&D. Ker-shaw] Flipside finds the boys in a sad frame of mind as they persuasively etch an infectious up tempo lover's lament. In addition to their first rate vocal stylings the artists again dish up some stand out instrumental work on the two sides.

BILL MACK
(Starday 360)

B+ "BLUE" (2:28) [Starrite BMI—Mack] Bill Mack's newest Starday offering has what it takes to make the pop, as well as the country jocks, sit up and take notice. It's a self-penned, moderate paced lover's lament that the warbler spins with warmth and sincerity. Watch it closely. Could be a real 'sleeper'.

C+ "FADED ROSE" (2:56) [Starrite BMI—Mack] The under end is for the 'straight' country music buyer. It's another tear-compelling, romantic Mack original set to a slight up beat and warbled with conviction by the artist.

SHARON LEE
(Excellent 401)

C+ "KISSING GAME" [Mooney & Lee BMI—Lee, Carter, Britt] The pert and delectable vocal stylings of young newcomer to wax, Sharon Lee, fall pleasantly on the ear, as she and Ray Britt, another newcomer, team up on a sprightly, up tempo novelty. Appealing ditty that bounces merrily along in gay style.

C "NO DEPOSIT, NO RETURN" [Hub BMI—D. Davenport, T. Mathison, F. George] This end the chirp sends up another peppy reading as she solos on a quick beat toe-tapper. Joe Elliot is featured on guitar.

DICK CURLESS
(Event 4274)

B+ "NINE POUND HAMMER" (2:20) [American BMI—M. Travis] Dick Curless comes up with a tantalizing rendition of a Merle Travis ditty that's been stirring up some dust in the New England area. It's a fast paced folk tale that Curless pounds out in potent style. Could be a chart-rider.

C+ "YOU NEVER MISS THE WATER (Till The Well Runs Dry)" (2:20) [United ASCAP—P. Secon, A. Kent] Flip portion is an interesting bit of romantic philosophy that Curless ambles over in easy-to-take fashion. Appealing mid-deck recitation on both halves.

DON VINSON
(MGM 12663)

B+ "WHY DID YOU LEAVE ME" (2:16) [Kenny Marlow BMI—Vinson] Don Vinson sends up an impressive vocal performance as he tearfully double-tracks his way thru a touching romantic lilter. Strong piece of material handled with finesse by the warbler.

B+ "SHAKIN' HANDS WITH HEARTACHES" (1:56) [Tower BMI—Vinson, Powell, Rackley, Stough] Under slicing features another top notch lover's blues, set to a contagious quick beat and performed in grade "A" manner by Vinson. Keep close tabs on both lids.

Country Round Up

Horace Logan, KCUL-Ft. Worth, Texas' Program Director notes that two of the artists who appeared and met on KCUL's "Cowtown Hoedown" are getting married on the stage of the Majestic Theater, Sat. nite, May 31st (between performances).

Joy Edwards, a member of the Melody Five Band and Lonnie Thompson, the vocalist with the "Troublesome Three" have decided to sign a lifetime contract. And because they met at KCUL's "Hoedown" they want to be married right there on the spot!

The "Hoedown" is sending them to Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn at Las Vegas as a wedding gift.

Logan adds, and KZEE-Weatherford, Texas' Norman Perry concurs, that Webb Pierce and Hank Locklin played to a full house at the "Hoedown" on Saturday, May 17th. This was Logan's 1st appearance as Master of Ceremonies along with "Uncle Hank" Craig and Jack Henderson. Others on the show included RCA's McCoy Kids and Columbia exec, Frankie Miller.

Tony Davis, formerly with WTSL-Hanover, N.H., now calls WJOE-Port St. Joe in Northwest Florida, his home. Diskeries, promotion men and artists—take note!

Mercury-Starday's Bill Clifton & his Dixie Mountain Boys worked the "Glen Echo" Ballroom, Washington, D.C., for Don Owens, on May 30th. Bill would like to work as many weekends as possible during the coming summer months and would appreciate hearing from interested parties. His address is 3 University Circle, Charlottesville, Va.

BOB COLE

Doris Cooney, vice-president of the Slim Harper Fan Club, advises that is Slim appearing every weekend at the "Scandia Club" in Garwood, N.J. Harper is now being managed by Smokey Warren and his new Wagon waxing is tagged "Lure Of Love". Doris adds that Slim'll be a proud papa soon.

Knowing how to relax is a wonderful facet, but relaxing to the degree that you fail to shave for 22 years is ridiculous.

However, "Herman the Hermit", banjo-pickin' and bass-playin' musician of KXLA-Pasadena, Calif's live daytime variety show, "Hometown Jamboree", has purposefully by-passed the razor and strop for, lo', these many years, and his shaggy looks have become a trademark in the business.

Herman, age 73, a real old-timer in radio and television is celebrating his 67th Anniversary as an Entertainer. Congratulations, Herm.!

Dick Haynes, age with-held, another radio-TV veteran brings his varied talent . . . comic, emcee, disk jockey, to KXLA on "D-H Day", Mon., June 2nd, when he returns from his retreat to Texas—for childhood reunions. "Uncle Richard", as he is known to his many Los Angeles fans, will present to KXLA's audience his huge cast of comical characters that have brightened the Southern Calif. radio scene for the past 10 years.

Dick's Show, "Haynes At The Reins", will be heard daily, from 2:30 to 5:30 P.M. starting June 2nd and he'll host his first day, some of the top names on the wax scene.

Cliffie Stone moved his "Hometown Jamboree" television show into the KXLA Studios, starting Sat., May 17th after nine years.

Stone's "Jamboree" program is one of the oldest television programs on the west coast having been on consistently for the past nine years. Stone, who has always presented the show from a ballroom, made the decision recently to give the show stronger production value, better lighting and sound by bringing it into the KXLA sound stage.

Seen weekly on "Hometown Jamboree" will be, as usual, Molly Bee, Darla Daret, Rose and Cal Maddox, Billy Strange, Gene O'Quin, Harry Rodcay, "Herman the Hermit" and Stone's Band.

SLIM HARPER

Actor Smiley Burnette flew into Hollywood recently to sign a 3 year contract with Lewis Morphy, western actor and owner of a big amusement park, "Paradise Cove", in Dayton, Tenn. Burnette's contract calls for a personal appearance at the opening, on June 15th, and all promotion and advertising for the 3 years is to be handled by Burnette Promo agency. Max Harrison, and his wife, Dottie, of the Dallas Times-Herald are assuming the chores for Promo—full time. John Drew, Promos booker, will handle talent and Ted Jorgenson Promos Studio City Prexy, will handle business management. "Paradise Park" will be unique in its operation. All concessions will be owned and operated by Service Clubs and Organizations interested in the welfare of children. 4-H clubs and other organizations in the Dayton area will hold their functions in the park, and a boys summer camp will be added next season. Burnette is booked for the Ohio State Fair in August.

Betty Luther, on leave from Charlie Aldrich's "Riverside Rancho" show in Los Angeles, was signed by J. E. Swarr to the guest spot with "Tex"

Denton at his big "Western Jamboree" in Barstow on May 24th. Betty is also set for a series of dates along the west coast. She recently renewed her pact with Swarr to handle her publicity and promotion for the 3rd year. The California All-Stars, a western swing band under the direction of Swarr is set for a series of shows in El Monte, Calif. The band is also set for several rodeo dates in the near future with featured vocalist, Lea Tiner set for several personals along the west coast next month.

CLIFFIE STONE

Jack Tucker and his band are now playing at "Cowtown" in Los Angeles every Wed. nite, in addition to Fri. and Sat. at the "Jubilee Ballroom" in Baldwin Park, Calif. Jack has a new release out on 4 Star, titled "Crazy Do" and "The Big Door."

Isabelle Carter writes from Cleves, Ohio that she's a co-writer on Sharon Lee's Excellent waxing of "Kissing Game". Flipdeck is dubbed "No Deposit No Return". WCPO-Cincinnati's Myles Foland had Sharon and Ray Britt, also on the disk, on his Coney Island show. Isabelle adds that WNOP-Newport, Ky.'s Jimmy Skinner, Jimmy Williams and Ray Scott are really giving the tune a whirl. Williams and Scott, incidentally, operate the weekly "Chaperon" boat ride. The boat sails up the Ohio River every Sun. and provides bands for the dancin' teensters. Loretta Thompson, who is set for "Uncle Billie's" WLD-TV show in Dayton, Ohio in the near future, was scheduled to appear on the "Chaperon's" June 1st voyage.

Corky Hammond, who recently turned out the initial edition of the most interesting Roy Drusky fan Club booklet, sends along some info on the jocks who help keep the KEVE-Minneapolis, Minn. c&w turntables spinning. First off Drusky opens up at 5:45 A.M. with the "Coffee Club Capers" and he's on 'til 10:30 A.M. Then comes Dave Dudley, who is on 'til 3:30 P.M. Dave, a new addition to the staff, has a new waxing on the Starday label tagged "Cry Baby" and "Careless Fool". At 3:30 P.M., up until sign off time, the platter spinning chores are handled by Vern Weegman. Vern recently took a trip to Nashville where he was to be honored as "Deejay Of The Day".

ROSE MADDOX

Prior to taking over the reins of ABC-TV's "Country Music Jubilee" Sat., June 7th, Jim Reeves played his first personal appearance engagement with "Jubilee" regulars on Saturday, May 31st, at State Fair Park in Dallas, where he headed up a bill which included Bobby Lord, Suzi Arden and Will Mercer. The date was set by Jim McConnell, general manager of "Top Talent", the "Jubilee's" booking affiliate. Reeves will be in the driver's seat of the network television show for 8 weeks.

Pasadena, Texas, Radio Station K.R.C.T., has recently converted to nothing but the best in country style music all week long. The Country disk-jockeys who are on during the week are Hal Harris, Gabe Tucker, Bob Everson, and Earl Aycock. Recently Earl has had a new recording artist, Claude Gray interviewed on his show plugging his new release. Smokey Stover, KENT-Shreveport has recently been on Earl's show. Smokey Stover, Claude Gray, "Tater" Pete Hunter and Pleasant Ray Hegwood recently played a big dance at "Cook's Hoedown" in Houston, Texas along with other big name artists.

Two new deejays spinning the country wax are Hal Meyers, who spins 'em on KROF, Abbeville, La. every morning on "Good Morning Farmer's Friend". The other is Don Crocker, who runs the "Red River Roundup" every weekday from 11:30 to 1:00 in the morning and Saturdays from 11:00 to 1:00 in the morning, right after the "Louisiana Hayride" broadcast.

Al Terry, Hickory Recording artist has recently moved to KSLO in Opelousas, La. from KROF, Abbeville, La. His latest record is "Good Deal Lucille" b/w "Because I'm Yours".

The "Ramblin' Aces", starring Harry Trahan, Huey Meaux and band can be heard every Sat. on KPAC-Port Arthur, Texas. The boys sing 'em country & french style.

John Yanish and his "Sussex County Western Rancho" have made a few time changes.

You can now hear Yanish over the WNNJ-Newton, N.J. airwaves from 6:10 to 6:45 A.M. 6 days a week, and Sat. afternoons from 4:00 to 5:00 P.M.

John invites all those who are passing through Newton to drop in and chat with him. He'd also like to have c&w disks and records sent to him at Box 267, Hamburg, N.J. This coming Fall, he expects to have a show every 6 weeks including Stoney Cooper, Wilma Lee, and many others.

Autry Inman has been on the road almost constantly since his "End Of The Rainbow" show. Things got rather complicated on his last trip, too, as part of the time he had the mumps! After quite a serious relapse, he recovered sufficiently to record some new sides for Victor, and his new pairing, "Bullseyed" last week, is tabbed "Mary Nell" and "The Hard Way."

NEW YORK—Life Extension Examiners, an independent medical group, made a study of 5,000 executives for the Health Insurance Institute and came up with some very interesting conclusions. "Pot-bellied bosses with ulcers or cardiac conditions are not as numerous as they used to be," said the report. "Business leaders more than ever were keeping an eye on their figures and a foot on the scale," stated Dr. Harry Johnson, medical director for the group. "Only 15.2 per cent of executives are more than 10 per cent above normal weight, a big improvement over fifteen years ago when 29 per cent of executives were too heavy. The executives as a group are doing better with their weight condition than the population as a whole, of which 20 per cent are overweight." Johnson said that almost 59 per cent of the 5,000 executives were without evidence of significant organic disease. About 8.1 per cent had high blood pressure and 7.6 per cent showed organic heart disease.

NEW YORK—Altho the majority of companies thruout the country are those classified as "small business", it is acknowledged that "big business" determines the ups and downs of the nation's prosperity. It is therefore interesting to observe just what their attitude is. It was made clear last week as the American Management Association held a conference at the Hotel Sheraton Astor. The consensus was "The major corporations are basically optimistic on the economic outlook and are actually expanding their expenditures for research and for advertising and promotion rather than meeting the recession's challenge thru retrenchments." One of the nation's leaders told the 2,000 delegates: "It is our conviction that a new surge of economic growth requires bold, venturesome capital commitments and greater consumer persuasion and motivation. Now more than ever is the time for management . . . to do the sweating and planning and risking to get the consumer dollar flowing faster into the channels of trade."

MONTREAL, CANADA — While the following may not be news to our Canadian brothers, it is interesting to note. The standard of living in Canada is second only to that in the United States, according to a study. "The Canadian Markets", compiled by J. Walter Thompson Company, world's largest advertising agency. The advertising agency finds that in 1957 67 per cent of Canadian families owned homes; 82 per cent had refrigerators; 85 per cent washing machines; 76 per cent telephones; 96 per cent radios, 63 per cent television sets and 60 per cent automobiles.

Mr. Operator: Discuss This Editorial With Your Location Owners!

ATTENTION

Mr. Location Owner

HERE'S HOW TO GET BACK $10 FOR EVERY $2 INVESTED

The biggest problem facing the operator is how to get the public to use his machines more consistently. How to get people to insert more coin into his machines. How to captivate and hold the crowds at his machines for the longest possible period of time.

It is an accepted fact that today's modern machines, whether music, games or vendors, will accept the fastest and most furious type of usage from the general public. The modern machines of today can do this without a single slip, without a single miss and, at the same time, subjecting the machines to a very minimum of mechanical problems.

Therefore all agree with the operator that it isn't his machines that are his big problem. As reported above his big problem is, instead, how to attract more customers to his machines. How to get the public to play more music. How to get the people to buy more merchandise from his vending machines. How to get men and women to relax and enjoy more amusement.

There is a way. A way that requires the cooperation of the location owner. It may mean, as many have advised, $10 to the location owner for every $2 he invests if he will, in conjunction with his employees, cooperate with his operator to help himself while, at the same time, stimulating sales of his products to better his own business.

It is an already known fact that, wherever a location owner cooperates with his operator, the income from the machines in that location is always at the topmost peak.

This is not asking the location owner to go out of his way. This is not asking the location owner to invest heavily in anything that will bring him no return.

It is, instead, asking the location owner to cooperate with his operator so as to take advantage of the business stimulators, the coin operated machines, in his location. He is being asked to cooperate to the extent of making an investment of a few dollars to help stimulate the use of these machines which will, in turn and in almost every case, bring him back ten times his investment and even more.

Where the operator has won the location owner's complete cooperation the location owner will, when customers arrive in his place of business and, for example, should the phonograph be quiet, on his own and at his own expense the location owner will brighten up his place of business with music. The result usually is that, once the phonograph has been started to play, it will continue, at least until these customers leave.

For a few coins the location owner has enlivened the atmosphere of his place of business. For the investment of a few coins he has brought about a brighter and better change in the attitude of his customers. He always then proceeds to sell more of his own merchandise while the customers continue, at their own expense now, to keep the phonograph playing. Certainly the location owner could never make a better investment than this.

The same is true in the case of those location owners, or their employees, who will insert a few coins to show some interested patrons how fascinating the play action of a new amusement can really be. A little such competitive play action, between the location owner and/or his employees and whatever customers are about, usually starts play that goes on for many hours. At the same time this also encourages continued better sales of this store-keeper's merchandise. But, what's most important, the location owner is getting a tremendous return for a small investment.

The location owner who will invest a few dollars each week to start and keep play going on his phonographs and amusement will always get back ten times the amount he invests. Not only from the additional coin collected from the machines because of greater play but in the fact that he has, by such action, stimulated the sales of his own products while, at the same time, more greatly popularized his place of business with his patrons.

It's high time that location owners realized what a tremendous return they can enjoy thru better and more complete cooperation with their operators. Certainly being able to get $10, and even more, back for an investment of but $2, should interest any businessman. Especially intelligent retail merchants.

It is up to the operator to show the way to his location owners. He must obtain this cooperation. When, at the end of the week, the location owners learn they have earned more from the machines than ever before while, at the same time, showing a better return on sales of their own merchandise, they are bound to continue such cooperation.

This is all only good, common, investment horse sense. When a location owner can get back $10 for every $2 he invests it's high time he started to cooperate completely and fully with his operator for his own better financial future.

HOW'S BUSINESS?

Operators' Reports Give Enlightening Cross-Section View of Nation's Coinbiz

CHICAGO—More than ever, these days, is heard this favorite expression, "How's business?"

This question, it seems, is extremely well answered by the nation's operators in their latest reports to this publication.

These reports give a very enlightening view of just what has already happened and what can be expected as far as the coin machine business is concerned.

Writes a New York State operator: "I think a good summer is coming and will help tremendously. But after summer it will be rough unless something is done to okay free play games and lower the cost of equipment."

A Pennsylvania operator reports: "The amusement game business appears to be holding the 1957 level and, I believe, will continue to do so. The music machine business is spotty. We are constantly pulling machines and replacing them. The money doesn't seem to be around in the small cafe or luncheonette. I think this condition will continue for the balance of the year."

Advises a Massachusetts operator: "If this depression lasts much longer for unemployment relief to become exhausted then we will see earnings really go down. I was in the business during the big depression and phonos didn't do so badly. But, it was a new business and benefited from public interest. Also, the retirement of prohibition opened vast new fields of operation. I believe the flurry of good business that we have experienced in the past few weeks has been caused by a run of very good records. For example, 'Witch Doctor.' A hit tune, a real hit, always gives about a 10% increase."

From Connecticut an operator writes: "Business will be up in the last two quarters of the year." (In the meantime this on reports that he is earning about 10% profit on overall operations.)

From Arkansas: "Business is going to get better for the balance of 1958."

From Alabama: "Gradual level off and increase toward end of the year."

From Arkansas: "Harder work will bring good business provided we put our shoulder to the wheel."

From New Brunswick, Canada: "We believe this year is going to be the best year we will have had since the end of the war as far as profit is concerned. Our machines are nearly all paid for. We are buying only what we need."

Another from Arkansas: "Business will improve. Local conditions bad because of poor crop, rain and unemployment."

From Idaho: "I believe that in southeastern Idaho business will continue to be good. I think that buying new machines kept my business up. We move our machines down the line, making about four changes for each new machine purchased."

From North Carolina: "We expect the balance of 1958 to be about the same as 1957."

From Georgia: "Collections will continue less than last year and below the point where they will justify the purchase of new equipment at present high prices."

From Kentucky: "I believe collections will be slow in this area until October. Will continue about as now. Cost of operation will have to be cut."

From Michigan: "It's going to be slow until this fall when the auto manufacturers come out with new models."

From northern Illinois: "Slow all summer, until October or November, and then will start to pick up. Unless, of course, some manufacturer happens to hit on a good novelty game, not a warmed-over of something else."

From New Jersey: "Our business is stagnant. It is in the category of radio as compared to television. In my opinion only two things can change the picture. First, the elimination of the dance tax, so that our machines can be used for this purpose. Second, a radical change in phonos. Such as a selective machine that will show the artist as well as play the record. Both of these can give the industry a much-needed shot in the arm."

From Indiana: "We feel that business is breaking better now. But we are not figuring on too much change until next year. We are undertaking two different types of businesses to supplement our income."

From Cleveland, Ohio: "Business will be above 1957 as a whole. We'll pick up in the last quarter to make it still a better year. But not as good as 1956, our all time high."

From Michigan: "In my location of the state business will be better during the resort season."

From South Dakota: "It almost has to improve. Can't go much lower. We believe business will pick up from now on thru the rest of the year. One thing different about our route, we do not operate anything but music, no games, and that's where the real money is now."

From Wisconsin: "I can't see any recession. You've got to get out and find new locations. Pep up old locations with a pep talk and a new and different machine. Give your poorest locations something better and they usually pick up on collections. I hope the manufacturers keep building new and good machines. I live good, buy a lot and pay my bills. What more is there?"

From New Mexico: "Business always picks up in the summer tourist season. This helps the coin machine business. We always buy in spring to anticipate the summer business."

From Texas: "Collections are below last year with a good possibility of a real pick up this Fall. This depends on the unemployment situation."

From Montana: "Except for S.1870 we think business will be favorable. However, each operator is going to have to watch his business closely. The poor operators will be eliminated."

First Results Of Confidential Survey: Collections Off, But Big Majority Of Ops Continue To Earn Profit

Well Defined Majority Report Collections Off Anywhere From 5% to Over 30% But Continue To Show Profit Ranging from 5% to Over 20% on Overall Operations. Ops Confident of Collections Comeback During Latter Part of Year

CHICAGO—Many extremely interesting and revealing facts have come to light from a highly confidential survey being conducted among the members of The Cash Box' "20 Year Club."

The survey isn't as yet over. But already it has been learned that the far greater majority of the oldest and most outstanding operators all over the country are enduring lowered collections.

And yet, by better than two to one, all are showing an overall profit on their operations, regardless of the fact that collections are off anywhere from 5% to better than 30%.

It is also noticeable these same men report that, on an overall basis, their profit continues at anywhere from 5% to over 20% on their investments.

Certain areas, of course, are harder hit than others. In some territories collections continue as they did in '57. Some report their collections ahead of '57.

The survey, itself, is highly confidential. The men and women reporting in on this survey do not have to sign their names or give the names of their firms. They simply give the facts that are being asked of them.

Almost 2,000 members of The Cash Box' "20 Year Club" have been sent "Confidential Survey" sheets. Reports are flooding in from all over the nation, as well, as from Canada and from foreign countries.

The balance will then be able to work closer together for better percentages, public relations, etc. Believe that the recession will help to 'loosen' a great many areas. New equipment will sell slow, but used should be in demand, and the price will stay up for new games that are unusually good."

The reports listed here are only a very few of the large number which have been received by this publication.

There is no doubt that, by their text, they give an unusually fine cross section view of the national situation.

The most heartening fact that can be so far reported is that:

OPTIMISM REIGNS SUPREME.
So far, better than 99% of those who have answered the survey, believe:

"Better times are ahead for us for the balance of 1958."

This, in itself, seems to give everyone engaged in the industry the courage to proceed on ahead with purchases to cover their needs in the confident belief that they will earn more in the months yet to come and, furthermore, that their industry is far, far from finished, in any fashion whatsoever, as far as profitable operation is concerned.

Regardless of the well defined majority reporting collections off, many as much as 30% down, better than two for every one who made this report, also state that they are still earning profit on their overall operations. This is important to all the industry.

"This means," as many report, "this industry has a very solid foundation on which it can always rebuild for greater and more profitable business."

Wurlitzer Conversion Kit Sales Up

CHICAGO—Coven Music Corporation, this city, reports that operators are expressing their complete satisfaction with the new title strip conversion kit for Wurlitzer models "2200" and "2100" phonographs.

Ben Coven stated that the conversion kit is meeting an unprecedented demand and shipments are being made at a steady pace.

The conversion kit eliminates the book-type folder arrangement for identifying strips on the two models, and has all strips visible on a mounted panel. Title strip panel is almost identical to the new mounting on the model "2250". Most important is the fact that complete conversion is easily made in 15 minutes on location, according to Coven.

Leaders Urge: Ops Arrange To Offset Four Cent Dime

Believe Ops Must Arrange For More Equitable Share of Gross Intake to Equalize 4¢ Value of 1958 Dime. Urge Adoption of Incentive Commish Basis or Front Money Guarantees To Assure Continued Profitable Operations

CHICAGO—From all over the country there has risen a demand among leaders of the music and amusements industries for operators to arrange to offset the 4¢ dime by immediately adopting either front money guarantees or a more equitable commission basis for all of their locations.

"The play action is still there," one well-known operators' association leader reports.

"The problem," he adds, "is to get the operators to realize that, even tho the play is just as great and, in many cases, even greater than it ever was, they are earning less because the money they take in from their machines is worth less."

This leader commends The Cash Box for its many editorials over the years to point these facts out to all the operators.

"You have done the one and only job," he advises, "of any publication in the entire history of this industry to help the operator to help himself to greater and more assured profits."

"You have pointed out to him that the present, 1958 dime is worth but 4¢. That to offset this drop in the value of the dime he simply must arrange for a more equitable share of the gross intake from all of his machines."

"If the operators don't listen to you, and proceed on the basis that many of them are working on today, like you say, they simply cannot last in this new, modern business era when change and more efficient business methods are necessary to outlast the present inflationary forces, the recession, and establish a more assured and profitable operating business for the future."

A Midwestern leader reports, "We have, at long last, got the operators here to realize that 10¢ play is only really 4¢ play. In fact, that the dime is worth less than what the nickel used to be worth in 1939. We used all the charts, facts and figures from The Cash Box to point this out. We have won that much of the battle."

"Now we are trying to go further," he continues. "We are showing the operators your editorials and news items regarding the fact that they definitely must obtain a more equitable share of the gross intake from all of their machines to be able to continue ahead profitably in this business."

"It's very difficult to make these men see the light. To make them realize that this is a new business era. That they must arrange for more efficient operating methods or they will find themselves going into bankruptcy."

"We hope, tho, that before this year is out, the majority of the operators here will have made the necessary attempts to get a more equitable share of the gross intake from all of their machines."

"Please send us whatever further information you may have on hand to help us present these facts to the operators. We have searched thru all of our issues of The Cash Box and have already removed all items and editorials in reference to a more equitable arrangement of the gross so that we will have these ready to present at our next meeting."

There is little further to be written after the above statements. The fact remains that the intelligent businessmen of this industry realize they must adopt the most efficient methods they possibly can to survive this recessive period and, at the same time, by the adoption of such better business procedure, assure themselves profitable operations in the better years ahead.

Wurlitzer West Germany Distrib Now Getting Firmly Set With Trade

COESFELD/WESTFALEN, GERMANY—Rex Automaten, recently appointed as Wurlitzer distributors for West Germany, reports it is getting firmly established with the trade here.

Josef Thesing, who, in the past, handled coin operated machines under the name of "Esstfälscher Automaten," continues the new company in the same premises and with the same staff.

Erich Schneider states that the former Hamburg branch office of Lowen-Automaten, Bingen/Rhine, has been taken over by the Rex company, and will also continue in the same premises and the same stuff under his direction. "This office," states Schneider, "will occupy itself with the import of Wurlitzer phonographs, and other USA products in cooperation with those firms with whom I have already had business relations in the past."

Seeburg Distribs Can Open New Vending Sales Path

Claim This Is New, Modern Sales Era, Well Timed For The Seeburg Distributing Organization To Show Way For Better Sales and Closer Cooperation With Vending Machine Ops

CHICAGO — Contrary to past history, when manufacturers were unsuccessful in attempted sales of vending machines thru distributors, the Seeburg distributors, who have just taken on the "Seeburg Cigarette Vendor", believe that this is the time for sales thru distributors to operators because, as they claim:

"This is a new and modern business era."

"Perhaps in the past", agrees one Seeburg distributor, "it was best to sell vending machines thru representatives who traveled a very large area."

"But today", he explains, "with the fact that distributors have helped operators to enjoy greater earnings. Have helped them to obtain credit when required. Have worked right with them to get them started correctly. Today", he claims, "it's a new and modern business era. The operator knows his distributor will cooperate with him to help him make good."

Like other Seeburg distributors he points out that the operator today finds it easier and better to deal with his local distributor. Seeburg distributors claim that operators know where they are located. That they can get quick service. That all the operator has to do is pick up his telephone and be in constant contact with the distributor.

"Some operators", says one Seeburg man, "had to wait until the vending manufacturers' representative called around before they could tell him what was wrong or what they wanted. This would, sometimes, be weeks before they saw the man."

"This isn't the case where Seeburg distributors are concerned. All the operator has to do is simply pick up his telephone. He has made immediate contact. He gets what he wants. He knows he'll get immediate service."

There is no doubt that vending machine manufacturers all over the country are going to be watching the result of this switch in sales methods.

The old, historical claim was that only a trained representative, devoting himself completely to the sale of vending machines could really handle this business correctly.

What must be taken into consideration, of course, is the fact that the Seeburg distributing organization is one of the best integrated in the history of this industry. These men have proven themselves highly successful sellers of Seeburg's musical products.

They have also been a very close and devoted unit. Their success has won them the complete regard of other manufacturers who will give Seeburg distributors first consideration in almost every case.

Still, even with all these facts at hand, many are wondering whether distributors who have so closely devoted themselves to music and games, will fit into the vending machine picture with as much success as they do in these other lines they handle.

If confidence is to be considered an important factor, then there is no doubt that the Seeburg distributors are set to open an entirely new sales path for the vending machine manufacturers.

If past successes should also be considered, then there is also no doubt that the "Seeburg Cigarette Vendor" will set new sales records.

If enthusiasm is also a factor, surely there is little to leave for failure. The Seeburg distributors are tremendously enthused over the addition of the "Seeburg Cigarette Vendor" to their present lines.

In short, and as this new, modern business era gets going, many are of the belief that the Seeburg Corporation has well timed its entrance into the vending machine field.

That this timing, plus the great Seeburg distributing organization, may revolutionize the vending machine industry's sales methods.

K.C. Ops' Assn Seeks Agreement On Front Money Guarantees

KANSAS CITY, MO. — Association leaders here are trying very hard to get the operators in this area to adopt front money guarantees now that the majority of the operators have changed to dime play.

They are using editorials and news items from The Cash Box to prove to the operators that they must obtain a more equitable share of the gross intake from their machines, in addition to 10¢ play, if they are to continue profitably in business.

There will be a meeting here on June 10 whereby many new facts and figures, it is hoped, will be ready for presentation to the gathering. These will be presented to prove the need for a more equitable share of the gross for the operators to help them to survive the present recessive period. Also to prepare them to enjoy the greatest possible profits in the months ahead.

It is reported that the operators are at this time, about evenly divided in their belief regarding a more equitable share of the gross intake be part of their program.

It is advised that those who would like to start out on such a program, and approach all of their locations to make this change, won't do so until the greater majority will come to an agreement in this matter so that they are assured they won't face unfair competition and possible loss of locations.

Music Ops Urged To Intensify Study Of Proper Programming To Assure Maximum Play

Leaders Report Many Music Ops Continue To Neglect Complete Possibilities Of Modern Highly Selective Phonos To Obtain Maximum Returns From All Of Their Locations

CHICAGO — "I've just completed a long auto trip of over 2,000 miles", advises a well known music salesman, "and one definite thing I can report", he continues, "is that the majority of juke box operators are neglecting the full possibilities of their modern, highly selective phonographs."

Like many others who have traveled the highways and byways of the nation, this salesman reports that he found old phones with title strips written in pencil, "and actually pasted onto the front glasses of the machines."

Some of these strips were worn away. Others had been torn off. In other locations he found records programmed he couldn't even recognize.

"In fact," he says, "whoever the artists were, they must have been alive long before my time, and I'm no youngster," he advises.

"The songs were from years gone by and, in a few cases, where I did recognize them, they were old, flop tunes."

"I believe," he reports, "that the majority of the operators are neglecting the most important advantage that the new 200 selection phonographs offer them. That's proper programming."

"If they will intensify their study of proper programming they will enjoy tremendously increased play in the greater majority of their locations."

"One thing I did find," he admits, "is that in their top spots operators pay closer attention to the programming of their phonos."

"But, usually," he comments, "I found that in such spots the location owners and their patrons are the ones who demand the tunes."

"Because of this, the machines are better programmed and, therefore, take in more money in every case."

"Where the operator hasn't won the cooperation and interest of the location owner," he continued, "the records are left in the machine for months and months. Until the title strips are worn and dirty. The records become old and dusty. The resultant effect is that play continues downward from then on."

He feels that the operators are neglecting to take advantage of the very greatest feature offered them by the modern, highly selective phonographs.

"They just don't properly program their juke boxes," he claims.

"They don't study the location. They don't talk with the patrons. They don't make tests of various types of recordings. They simply won't be bothered, if the location owner doesn't bother them. The result is that the play goes down and stays down and even goes lower down in many cases."

"I believe," he adds, "that the manufacturers and distributors, too, are to blame. It is up to them to hammer home the importance of proper programming day after day, week after week."

"In fact, when a good hit record shows up, the manufacturers and distributors of juke boxes should also advertise it. They, too, should get back to it."

"A hit record will boost the intake of any juke box anywhere from 10% to over 30% while it is hot."

"Most of all," he concludes, "is the very sad fact that the music operators are neglecting to take advantage of their greatest sales potential."

"That is," he reminds, "the fact that they now have such highly selective phonographs that, by proper programming, they can please almost every single person who patronizes any of their locations."

"In this way," he winds up his report, "they will all enjoy greater profits and will, at the same time, win the affection of their locations as well as the respect of the public."

NEW ENGLAND NIBBLES

Distributors rushed this week with traditional opening of the outdoor season on Decoration Day. Big shortage of arcade equipment is reported. Rides, games and music are bigger than ever in fun spots this year and ops are expecting good takes if they get the weather breaks. Influx of tourists this year, with an additional 2,000,000 expected in this summer as a result of "Yankee Homecoming," is expected to add considerably to automatic amusement machine grosses.

At Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. (Seeburg), orders are being booked rapidly for the new Seeburg cigarette vending machine while plant awaits shipment of the first units. All arcade equipment has been moved to coincide with the opening of the season, and floor is bare of this type merchandise. Williams' baseball reorders have been gratifying. Irwin Margold, gen. mgr., reports, and points out it has been one of the biggest alltime sellers. Gottlieb's "Rocket" is going big, he says. Marshal Caras, sales, is a member of the "green thumb" fraternity spending a lot of time in gardening at home where he has some prize roses and other flowers. Dave Bond, prexy of Trimount, and Irwin Margold, getting in some golfing with the good weather.

At Redd Distributors (Wurlitzer), Bally's new in-line, "Cypress Gardens," is getting tremendous enthusiasm from the ops and looks like the biggest winner in some time, says Si Redd. "Trophy Bowler" is still moving fast. Music has been going very big with reorders going in on Wurlitzer phonos. Bob Jones, sales mgr., and Mrs. Jones, off to the Cape for the long week-end. At Associated Amusements, Ed Ravreby, and Dick Mandell, gen mgr., readying for the summer on the Cape again this year with their families. The new plant on Cambridge St. is all set up, and kiddie rides are being heavily displayed. Used games, music and pool tables and bowlers are going good here. Dick Mandell is using his plane to hop around the territory calling on ops, dropping down out of the sky, and making a lot of calls in one day. At Atlas Distributors (AMI), Louis Blatt reports biz has been holding good, and outlook for summer biz is better than previously expected. He's getting in some road trips and calls while week-ending at his Newfoundlake house in N. H. More location contracts are being signed by ops now and they contend that dime play is helped by location pacts, because ops are not concerned about losing the spots, under contract, with 10¢ play.

Among ops in this week visiting distributors were: Bill Astle, Fall River; Al Dolins, Hyannis; Wilfred Benoit, Lewiston, Me.; Ray Shea, Worcester; John Sullivan, Bangor, Me.; Connie Pocius, So. Boston; Sol Robinson, Newton; Ralph Lackey, Milton; Steve Pielock, Worcester; Billy Wells, Boston; Ambrose & York, Brockton; Peachy Casanta, Milford; Harry Deshowitz, Medford; Cy Jacobs, Boston; Alec Pechilis, Ipswich; Harold Harwich, Brighton; John Poto, East Boston; Dave Gropman, Boston; Russ Mawsley, Holyoke; Bob Green, Randolph; Teddy Rubinovitz, Chelsea; George Chopelas, Malden; Sumner Segall, Boston; Ed Beals, Marblehead; Dave Baker, Arlington; Ben Ross, Boston; George Campbell, Medford; Manny Andelman, Cambridge; Phil Swartz, Brookline. Music trades people turned out for end of season party at George Wein's Storyville Sunday, May 25, where recording artist Errol Garner hosted. RCA recording artist Vaughn Monroe current at Blinstrub's nitery, last of the big name record stars in for the season. Salisbury Beach Frolic is opening June 27, with big lineup of name recording artists. Talent booked includes: Martha Raye, June 27-28; Eydie Gorme, Steve Lawrence, June 28; Frankie Laine, July 6; Red Buttons and Miyoshi Umeki, July 13; Four Lads, Jimmie Rodgers, July 20; Louis Armstrong All-Stars, July 27; Tony Bennett, Aug. 3; Tony Martin, Aug. 10; Johnny Mathis, Aug. 17; Teresa Brewer, Aug. 24-31.

PHILADELPHIA FILBERTS

Dave Rosen, David Rosen, shot into Long Island, New York for some fishing last week, and had quite a successful haul. Davey Weiss worked up-state last week and returned with some good sized business. The fellows at Rosen's are anxiously awaiting Williams' "Satellite". Weiss says test reports are fantastic. Hank Groenteman and Jack Palmer, International Amusement, tell us their fathers do not get enough action by cable so they now resort to the telephone. This way they can give them "the dickens" direct. Moe Bayer, Banner Specialty, advises business is picking up nicely. The organization expects a jump in sales when United's "Shooting Star" and "Eagle" arrive. Mike Chanick, International Scott Crosse Company, speaking of the new Rock-Ola "1464", said interest is growing with each passing day. Abe Witsen tells us business at the Fair in Antwerp, Belgium is very encouraging despite the rain and general bad weather. We are also told that Bally's new "Cypress Gardens" is a certain winner because of its new features. Larry Ash, Active Amusements, has decided to stay home for awhile, after his recent trip to Chicago and up-state. He says that operators are becoming a little cautious in their buying. Joe Ash had a small surgical job done, but he only stayed out one day. Nat Solow, Eastern, states that the boys are getting ready for the Seeburg new cigarette vendor. They already have a large backlog of orders. Ted Kellem, Marnell Distributing Company, reports a big record in "Gotta Match" by the Daddy O's on Cabot. Ted says this is the original. He is also high on "Judy" by Frankie Vaughan on Epic, and the Tina Louise United Artists' platter, "I'll Be Yours". At King Records, Al Fario, who will be handing out cigars soon, talks up Donnie Elbert's "Some One Made For You" and "I Want To Be Loved, But Only By You". Bob Heller, Chips Distr. Co., was rushed to the hospital where an appendectomy was performed. He is now home recuperating nicely. Herman Kaplan, promotion man for Sunbeam Records, taking the bows for helping to break "No Chemise Please" by Gerry Granahan. Gerry did the number on Dick Clark's show last Saturday. David Rosen's record department is now settled in its new quarters. Ritchie Salvador reports Frank Gallup's "Got A Match" on ABC-Paramount is racking up big sales. He also advises us to watch Chancellor's new release by Fabian.

Cissie Gersh, after much deliberation by the officers of the league who chose the recipient, gave The Cash Box "Edith Davis Memorial Award" to a very touched and tearful Mary Lou Fiorito. (Edith Davis passed away during this past bowling season).

Miss Fiorito's mother and father were also called up during the acceptance of the award. Both had been very well acquainted with the kind and charming Edith Davis.

"This award", Cissie Gersh stated, "is not given just for bowling dexterity. It is, instead", she said, "given to a young lady who wants to become a great bowler. Who tries hard. But who, at the same time, by her kindness, her charm and her ever pleasant personality wins the hearts of all with whom she comes in contact, just as did the late Edith Davis, who was loved and admired by all members of this bowling league and all who knew her."

New Program Holder Unit For Seeburg Models "V-200" and "VL-200"

CHICAGO — Nate Feinstein, Atlas Music Company, this city, announced that an all visible program holder displaying 200 selections has been designed by Jancor Engineering for the Seeburg models "V-200" and "VL-200". Called "The Speed Read Unit", it will permit the patron to scan at a glance and play the tune selected right away.

"The unit is so designed as to leave the mechanism completely exposed", explained Feinstein, "as the design of the 'Speed Read Unit' conforms exactly with the contour of the 'V-200' and 'VL-200'. This is a real factory type unit that takes only 5 to 10 minutes to install, and leaves the machine completely intact. Nothing is removed and the machine becomes in effect a 2 in 1 model, as it can be a drum machine in some locations, and an all visible program machine in other locations.

"Those who have seen this new unit are enthusiastic," concluded Feinstein, "as a new look means new interest and new income."

Feinstein stated that the unit will be available at most Seeburg distributors.

John Christopher Dies Suddenly

NEW YORK — The trade here was shocked with the sudden death of John J. Christopher (Christofano) on Tuesday, May 27, as a result of a heart attack. He was 46 years old.

Christopher had been associated with some of the largest arcades in the East, mainly on the main stem of New York City's amusement and theatrical streets, as well as on the Jersey shore. In addition, he was interested in a number of other enterprises.

He leaves a wife, Roni; three children, Lydia, Maria and Jefferson; a brother Dan; and sisters Lucy Nicolosi, Tessie Pucillo, and Rose Carcone. Internment was at Calvary Cemetary.

US GALS

By Cissie Gersh

was their very lovely and charming daughter, when the surprise announcement was made that Mary Lou Fiorito had been chosen to receive The Cash Box' "Edith Davis Memorial Award" which I was so very proud to present.

My favorite gal, Eve Feinstein, with her ever lovin' Nate attended the banquet. Eve wore a beautiful print dress consisting of many different shades of blue and as many and varied shades of green. When I mentioned how pretty her dress was, Eve reminded herself of a puzzling story. Last week, she told me, she had attended a party wearing the very same dress. The hostess came up to her and said, "Eve, you're wearing my favorite color." Eve's still wondering what color she meant??? . . . Trudy (Mrs. Ben) Coven spends most of her time these days in a dental chair. But just wait until you see the results!!! Saw Trudy's son, Jeffrey Coven, at the MOA dinner dance. This boy is Hollywood material. A really handsome lad. And girls he looks just peachy dreamy driving his new Corvette sports car.

Marge Kraft of Decca Records tells me she would be lost without her assistant, Mary Jane Metzger. . . . Nice to see Marie Genovese looking so very happy. . . . Mrs Isabel Oomens is still winning trophies for her bowling skill. This gal just wins and wins. . . Always so nice to talk to pretty Jane Gallet. . . . Started over to say "hello" to the beautiful Mollie Friedman at least five or six times. But just never made it. Mollie, a "big hello" to you, via this column. You're still the best looking Grandma in Chicago. . . I'm sorry Marine Druri couldn't bowl this season. She cut her finger and was told not to use her hand until the cut healed completely. . . Glad to see Ursula Galgano walk off with two trophies. Ursula sure is one pretty gal. . . Loretta Oomens also won two trophies. . . Myrtle Sochacki was simply overwhelmed with her award.

Johnny Oomens kept telling me that this was the biggest crowd that had ever yet attended one of the bowling league banquets. . . . Everyone seemed to be having such a very good time. . . . Some of the gals I noted around me were Cyril Cairo, Millie Taylor, Isabella Hersh, Ann Rice, Melvina Jones Judy, Marylin and Helen Hall, Lydia Baxter, Sally Hansen, Irene Krey, Mary Cooper, Ellen Brown, Anne Dalton, Elsie Spring, Kathy Pieri, Jeanne Rachel, Helen and Mary Walczak, Mary Ann Losasso, Peggy Meyers, Earlene Weiss, Dorothy Barclay, Eleanor Nelson, June Larson, and so many, many others, please forgive me if I've missed some of you. I'll try, at next year's Bowling League banquet, to remember every name. . . I do hope that all of you bowlers enjoy a marvelous summer.

Award To Al Wertheimer

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Al Wertheimer, president of Davis Distributing Corporation, main office in Syracuse, received an award in recognition of outstanding service to the New York State Restaurant Liquor Dealers Association at the recent convention held at the Hotel Lafayette, here.

Pictured herewith, Mrs. Anthony Vicsiglio (left) and Leonard E. Friedlander (far right) counsel to the state association, point to the mementoes received by Anthony Vicsiglio, president of the association, (keys to the city from the mayor) and Al Wertheimer (third from left).

J. A. Weinand Resigns From Williams To Head New Vending Magazine

J. A. (ART) WEINAND

CHICAGO — J. Arthur Weinand resigned from Williams Manufacturing Company, this city, with the blessings and best wishes of Harry Williams, Sam Stern, Sam Lewis, Sam Berger and all the other executives and engineers of this noted factory, to take over an executive position on a new magazine, "Vending Age"

"For some years now", Weinand stated, "I have been carefully analyzing the future trends of this industry. I have come to the definite and absolute conclusion that automatic merchandising has reached its true stature in the world of automatic vending."

"What is most important, it definitely is leading the way, in this forthcoming age of automation and lack of sufficient manpower, to sales leadership in merchandising. This is the 'Vending Age'. This is the ultimate. The only answer to better, more efficient, money-saving merchandising for all outstanding producers of any and all vendable products desired and purchased by the general public for all its needs.

"This new magazine, 'Vending Age' will open an entirely new era for all the industry. It will point the way to the new ideas, the new purpose, the new efficiency, and the new methods which go into making this the 'vending age' for all the world's great merchandisers.

"It will be colorful. It will be powerful in its editorial content, and readers' service. It will be explicit in bringing to the fore the new plans which are yet ahead for this great and growing 'vending age'.

Weinand previously was associated with the Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation for over sixteen years as Vice-President in charge of Sales, and was Vice-President of Exhibit Supply Company for three years before joining the Williams' organization.

With a short week and a long weekend to celebrate Decoration Day, everyone on coinrow was pushing at top speed. Added shipments to coinmen demanding delivery needed for the holiday created further pressures. Many of the wholesalers were planning on a three day holiday. Operators visiting along the street rushed from one wholesaler to another, picking up needed supplies for the weekend. Now, if they get a break with some warm sunny days (which they need because of the terrible weather we've been having for the past several weekends) there'll be a lot of smiling, happy faces on coinrow next week.

The trade stunned by the sudden death of John (Christopher) Christophano of a heart attack on Tuesday, May 27. John was only 46 years old. Over the years, John, together with his brother Dan, and other partners, owned some of the largest arcades in New York City and on the Jersey shores. . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin on the street, spreading good cheer. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales, advises sales of AMI phonos and Bally games going along at a steady pace, with Bally's "Space Gunner" and "Big Inning" getting a big play. Myron, Shugy's son, will not spend the summer months helping out at Runyon, but will utilize those weeks studying to facilitate his graduation from Bucknell University the next year. Shugy and the missus, Mollie, together with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Kaye and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stern will spend the Decoration Day holiday traveling thru Canada. . . . Bob Luttmann, that handsome, low shooting golfer, moaning because he can't get to a golf course—"just too busy on the route", he advises. . . . Richard Wenzel, Kingston, N. Y. op, makes the rounds of coinrow. "Business good", he smiles. "It has to be good. I have 8 kids to feed, ranging from 3 to 17 years. . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic New York Corp., reports sales of Seeburg phonos very good, with ops showing keen interest in Seeburg's new cigarette vendor. Meyer will be in Hartford, Conn., on Sunday, June 1, to attend the wedding of Mac Perlman's son Bert. Murray Kaye, who had planned on a weekend in the country with his family, had to cancel out. His boy came up with the measles the early part of this week, and then his younger daughter caught it on Tues. So he'll stay at home.

Over at Mike Munves', the place was a bedlam of activity. Everyone rushing to get out equipment and supplies for the holiday. Following the example of the ever dynamic Mike Munves, the staffs headed by Joe Munves, Alvin Munves and Willie Gaines, were moving around like whirlwinds. . . . Murray Cohen and Max Cohen of The Peter Cohen Amusement Co., Woodridge, N. Y., make the rounds of wholesalers loading up for their resort locations. . . . With Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., out of the office, Al D'Inzillo handles the influx of visitors. "ChiCoin's 'Batter Up' going very well", he reports. . . . Ben Wolfe, trucker, handles a load of machines for delivery this week. . . . Abe Lipsky, Sandy Moore Distributors, tied up with customers, so we spend a few minutes with Bernie Levine. Bernie's son, Tommy, 14 years old, and 6 ft. 2 in. tall, considered one of the best basketball prospects on Long Island. . . . Harry Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing, celebrates a 25th wedding anniversary on June 4. Very proud of his son-in-law, Marvin Forman, who graduates from the University of Penna. as a dentist on June 11. Will then go into the Phila. General Hospital for 1 year of internship. Hymie Koepfel a bachelor these days, with his wife out in Mesa, Ariz., visiting relatives. . . . Red Zirpoli tells us his son, Anthony, will spend the summer vacation months as a caddy. Says he's quite a golfer. . . . Sylvia Lowey, who is an important cog in Dave Lowey's firm, takes a day off to shop, and Dave moans out loud, complaining that just that day business was so brisk, he was overwhelmed handling everything himself. . . . Gertrude Browne, Beacon, N. Y. op, and secy of the N. Y. State Operators Guild, tells us that the regular June meeting of the group will not be held due to the Annual dinner being held at Grossingers on Sat. night, June 14.

Through The Coin Chute UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

Les Bruns, Fargo, N. D., never passes up a ride to the cities, especially if it's just for a day. Les making a fast trip around the jobbers and then back home. . . . Chas. Rose, Fargo, N. D., visiting relatives in Hammond, Ind., and Calumet, Ill. Will be gone about a month. . . . Jack Tomar, Two Harbors, Minn., got his limit of fish on opening day last week. . . . Opening day last week end had many of the operators at their favorite fishing spot, and the reports were that fishing was at its best. Had several invites but couldn't get away. . . . Congratulations to Bill White, parts manager at the Sandler Dist. Co. Bill got married Sat., May 24. Ceremony was held at Spirit Lake, Iowa. . . . Al Thaelke, United Mfg. Co. service engineer in town for the week. Al does a wonderful job in service for the operators, and they are always happy to see him. . . . Amos Miller, Spooner, Wis., in town for the day, and reports that he looks for a good summer business around his resort locations. . . . Frank Coubal, Bloomer, Wis., in town for the day making the rounds. Frank was saying that his collections this month have picked up quite a bit. Looks for a nice summer business. . . . The San Francisco Giants and the Chicago White Sox played an exhibition game in Minneapolis last week and it brought in quite a few operators from the Dakotas, Minnesota, and surrounding areas. . . . Joe Weber in town for the day, stopped in to say hello. Joe was in to see the new Zenith line of T. V. . . . Bob Cross, Jackson, Minn., in town for the day to pick up his record supply, and then on his way home. . . . Fred Keiser, Berthold, N. D., is very busy farming now. Fred owns several hundred acres of farmland and will be busy now until fall of the year. . . . Amos and Danny Heilicher of Mpls. have their cruiser out on the lake and are looking forward to some nice weekends of boating. . . . Clem Pinewski, Big Lake, Minn., in town for the day making the rounds. . . . Orville Willett, Lemmon, S. D., is expanding his route and is now operating in Montana. . . . Harold Scott, formerly sec'y of the South Dakota Operators Ass'n, is now on the police force at Mobridge, S. D.

Through The Coin Chute CHICAGO CHATTER

Biggest and gayest affair in the six years of banquets by the Chi Automatic Phono Bowling League took place this past Satty eve, May 24 at the Belden-Stratford Hotel. Everyone had a grand time. Bob Gnarro got to the "mike" and, once again, enjoyed himself tremendously, discussing this and that while making a running series of announcements. . . . Ben and Trudy Coven looked just great at the music ops' bowling banquet. . . . Nate and Eve Feinstein thoroly enjoyed themselves. . . . Wonder where Maurie and Rose Ginsberg were? They live at the Belden. Many hoped they would drop down and say, "Hello". . . . Bally's Bill O'Donnell advises that he'll stay home this Memorial weekend. Reason? "I'm surrounded by relatives", he says. . . . Kurt Kluever advises that Rock-Ola business has boomed up and above whatever anyone tho't would be possible. "By the way", advises Kurt, "I'm on my way east. First stop, Baltimore".

Les Rieck, who's busier than busy at the Rock-Ola factory these days, also reports, "Business has been picking up all down the line. And I mean up and above the business we have been doing right along." Les attributes much of this to the introduction of their new Wall Type Phono. Also to the warm weather business pickup for the entire phono field. . . . Sam Wolberg leaves for a few weeks of rest and Sam Gensburg steps in to take over executive duties at Chicago Dynamics. . . . ChiCoin's Mort Secore advises, "As far as we're concerned, it's the same story all over again this week. Production and more production for 'Rocket Shuffle' and 'Batter Up'. Looks to me", adds Mort, "like we'll just never stop producing these two games". . . . Paul Huebsch doesn't know whether he will or will not leave for the weekend. "In the meantime", advises Paul, "ich gei schlaffen." That means, if your German is weak, "I'm going to sleep." It's been hectic at Keeney with demand for the firm's new cigarette vendor growing by leaps and bounds.

Ed Ratajack has been dubbed with the title "G. R. Commuter". That means, "Grand Rapids commuter". Ed's up and back between Chicago and Grand Rapids like other guys from home to their job. (Why not buy an airplane, Ed?) . . . CJA meeting at Fritz's resulted in about 20 receiving awards for their marvelous efforts in behalf of this great charity. Joe Kline was simply beaming thruout the meeting. Once again this year, as in past years, the coin machine division far surpassed all other divisions of the entertainment industries in donations. "But this year", Joe reports, "we set a new high record." Present at this luncheon were Dave Gottlieb, Wally Finke, Harold Schwartz, Hy Polo, Jack Goodman, Harry Glick, Nick Glick, Nick Nelson, Larry Burkelheimer, Judd Weinberg, Gil Kitt and, of course, Samuel Wolberg who is Chairman of all the entertainment industries for CJA and who made the awards.

It happened. First of all, Bill O'Donnell lit right into Charles (Little Jimmy) Johnson who had purchased all the Lion TV receivers. Then, lo and behold and much to his embarrassment, Bill needed a set quick. So what did he have to do but appeal (mind you "appeal" in a most polite way) to "Little Jimmy" for "just one Lion TV, pretty, please". (Little Jimmy's answer must, because of postal regulations, be censored). . . . C. T. (Mac) McKelvy telling how intensively Seeburg's engineers test new equipment. Seems that the firm's new "Seeburg Cigarette Vendor" was on steady operational test for days and days. Long before production got under way.

In fact, while Mac was talking about the test, the vendor had already surpassed 4,300 consecutive operations without a single hitch, slip or miss, and was still going strong. That's testing. . . . Harry Glick still can't get over the intake of the "Commando Machine Guns". Every so often he picks up collection reports sent him, looks them over, and just grins from ear to ear. . . . Avron and Nancy Gensburg enjoying their vacation at Colorado Springs. Not in Miami, as previously reported.

Nice to again meet with Larry and Mary Cooper of Paul Brown's camp who came down to attend the Bowling League banquet. . . . Tho collections are off all over the country, profits are continuing to hold up on an overall operational basis. That's important. And proves why this industry has got what it takes. . . . No busier clan than the Gottlieb's at this time. Dave and Alvin Gottlieb doing philanthropic work and chasing about from here to there to help build that gorgeous, modern hospital. Nate Gottlieb on phones all day long. Judd Weinberg plenty busy with export. And almost everyone else at the Gottlieb factory busier than anything all day long. . . . John Frantz is enjoying one of the best seasons yet for his "ABT Rifle Gallery". . . . Jack Mitnick's harder than ever to reach these days. Most of his time is spent over in the factory, not at his desk. When questioned, Jack answered, "Remember? I work here." Then added, "And I mean work."

Looks like Bill DeSelm will be taking it nice and easy this weekend. "Just resting", he said. "Looking up at the blue sky and dozing away the hours." Which is something that Bill can't do when he's at his desk. Not with the way those phones keep on ringing away all day long. And the action gets hotter as new products start thru United's production lines. . . . Harry Williams, Sam Stern and Sam Lewis busier than they've ever been. Just couldn't seem to get started on a new product. Everytime they believe that production should start on some new game—zingo—along come more orders for baseball games. But, this past week, Williams was able to break loose and introduce a new five-ball. . . . No busier distribs than Gil Kitt, Joe Robbins, Jack Burns, Fred Minter, Ray Henderson, in fact, the whole gang over at Empire who seem to be working 'round the clock to meet demand they are enjoying. . . . Wally Finke speeding off for a weekend of fun while Joe Kline advises he's going to enjoy some rest and quiet. First Coin a busy beehive of business during the week and Joe feels a weekend of rest ain't gonna hurt him one little bit.

With a short week ahead of them everyone over at World Wide was busier than they'd been in weeks. Joel Stern dashing from here to there and back again. And on the phones hour after hour. "We're trying our best",

Joel said, "to satisfy everyone, even tho this is a shorter working week." . . . Nice letter from friend Sammy Weisman of Baltimore. (Aside: Sam, we'll do our best to take care of your request). . . . George Jenkins, 8th Vice President of Bally, in a new office, fixing it up to match his desires. Herb Jones also in new and larger offices. In fact, there's an entire change of office setup at Bally. . . . With the golfing season under way, guys who shoot in the 70's, like Len Micon of World Wide, take off for days of chasing that elusive little pellet. Which reminds, wonder how Herb Oettinger's golf game is these weekends? And how's about Vincent Shay who plays a steady game of golf? (Time for the golfers to start reporting in to us).

United Music Ready For Volume Sales

JACK MITNICK

CHICAGO — Jack Mitnick, executive vice-president of United Music Corporation, this city, is as busy as the proverbial paper-hanger, according to reports coming out of the big United Factory. Ever since the first showing of the new United "UPB-100" phonograph at the recent MOA convention, operators and distributors have been pressing Mitnick for price and delivery data. However, at this time, Mitnick is unable to give a definite price schedule, but feels confident that both price and delivery information will be made public within the next few weeks.

Mitnick urged coinmen who have not already contacted United, to do so as soon as possible in order to get the facts in advance. "In other words,"

Mitnick said, "to insure earliest shipment, now is the time to put in your request for complete data, because, as it stands right now, the United organization is really getting set for volume production with deliveries planned on a first-come-first-served basis."

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.
